

On This Side Of The Sun

By Mrs. G

This isn't Friday, the 13th, but Phat had a birthday last Sunday and asked me to take over until convalescence was complete—or, at least, until he recovered. Just from the excitement, I mean.

BIG DAY—He spent the weekend in Los Angeles and his first remark, on popping out of bed (extremely slow-motion popping, by the way) at mid-morning Sunday, was: "Gosh, a year older, a little greyer, somewhat bald, but, darn it, not a bit wiser." ... It was a big day from start to finish ... First off, the telephone rang and a woman's voice came in: "I'd like to speak to General Phat. P-H-A-T that is." Being broad-minded, I wasn't a bit suspicious and called him from his room with the Sunday paper. He didn't want to answer at first, fearing it might be some pest wanting a free ride to Palm Springs in the a.m. ... I'll go into that later.

CONGRATULATIONS — But it was a giggling Western Union girl. She had a message from Palm Springs to read to him. "On this major day, we offer major congratulations to the general. From your major problems, Carl and Mabel, Harold and Marcella, Bill and Ruth, Bill and Peg, Lois and also Bob." It was from The Desert Sun Gang. "That major husband very happy," commented the general ... I resisted that impulse and let the skillet lie ... But I believe any jury would have acquitted me after a terrible pun like that. ... Also came some glassware, cigarettes, a book or two, and, my, more records to clutter up his apartment. ... But the climax to a great day came in the evening. A long distance call from the oldest son in Boston, congratulating his dad (collected). Bless him, he never forgets. I mean the son.

HOLIDAY—After the usual Sunday morning "farm" breakfast—at noon—I took Phat out to see Ken Murray's "Blackouts" in Hollywood ... Thought it was a bit risky in that it might make him discontented with home life after seeing Marie Wilson, but he took it in stride, shaking the entire row of seats with his laughter ... By now most of his friends in the Village must be bored to death with the gags he so carefully culled from the show and nurtured for repetition.

LOOKING 'EM OVER—After the show, the main character in this part of The Sun took me to the Hollywood Chi Chi where, with his usual nosiness, he soon found that the man behind the mahogany was last in the Village in 1936 at what was then known as the Silk Hat ... Then to Myke Lyman's where he looked up Bob Hull, formerly at the organ in Palm Springs, but was told Bob wouldn't be there until 6:30. Phat, having a distinct distaste for after-dusk driving in Los Angeles and at other times, too, according to his language, decided not to wait ... Being still light, the next stop was the Hawaiian Paradise, away out on Melrose, where he went to see Portogee Joe Felix, former Villager, now owner of that place. But Joe wasn't in either. But Phat did talk to a little Filipino boy, Ralph, who also was last here in 1936. Ralph was so eager to talk about Palm Springs that he jay-walked with us clear across Melrose to where the car was parked ... He used to work for Mrs. Nellie Coffman and Mrs. Thomas O'Donnell and he nearly wept as he remarked how kind and gracious they were.

TRAFFIC—Home at sunset through heavy Los Angeles traffic. Now that both boys are grown I don't mind Los Angeles traffic so much. I don't have to curb those impromptu remarks directed at other drivers and call attention to the fact he wouldn't want his sons to pick up that kind of talk ... But traffic is terrific and Phat often wishes for the return of rationing. His favorite contention is that if there were some way to eliminate left-hand turns, there would be less frayed tempers and fewer accidents and also that too many people are rugged isolationists—they believe they are the only one on the highway.

PESTS—Phat's too polite to say so—but people who call up and want to ride to Palm Springs with him, irk him. Not that he objects to taking them but they hardly ever are there on time and there's no place to park and wait for them down-town ... Once he circled the block four times slowly, waiting a tardy pair and finally 25 minutes after the arranged meeting, took off for the Village. Next day the male member of the duo called him and threatened to quit The Sun because Phat "stood him up." ... And there was one couple with six suit cases, a baby and a dog from Palm Springs to Los Angeles who were hand-cuffed at service stations and whom he took away out of his way to Olympic and Western. They just blithely said "Thanks."

NOTES—Have some notes here on wadded copy paper, paper napkins and the like, which Phat left for me ... One says something about Herb Caen of the San Francisco Chronicle, who said some mean things about the Village. Phat's comment, it says here, is "The Chronicle writer seems to have a chronic ... Oh, I can't use that word in print."

Stage All Set For 10th Annual Circus

AIDS RODEO—Mickey Rooney in his first civilian picture since his honorable discharge from the army and vacationing here, has volunteered to carry the colors in the mounted contingent of Legionnaires during the Circus Week parade and to ride the

Rate Torney As "Surplus"

Army Action Comes As Surprise, Steps Taken on Situation

Torney general hospital here has been officially declared surplus by the War Assets Corporation and turned over to the Federal Works Agency for disposal.

This information was contained in a letter received by Mayor Eugene E. Theriau. The action on the part of the War Assets Corporation came as a surprise to both city and the Palm Springs Hospital association who had been under the impression that that government agency would deal directly with the city of Palm Springs or the hospital association.

Upon the receipt of the letter an emergency meeting of the city council took place and it decided to send William E. Alworth, city manager to Washington, D. C., to "investigate" the situation if necessary.

The letter which was received by the mayor and signed by Robert Whittet, director, Institutional Division, read as follows: "Dear Mayor Theriau: "With reference to the interest of the city of Palm Springs in the acquisition of Torney general hospital, this is to advise that this property has been classified as commercial real property and assigned to the Federal Works Agency for disposition. That agency will communicate

Great Two-Day Rodeo To Prove Great Climax To 10th Annual Circus

"Citizens of Palm Springs will have an opportunity to show that it has not forgotten its returned soldiers who won the peace," asserted Mayor Eugene E. Theriau. The Mayor uttered this statement in conjunction with the Palm Springs "Round-Up" rodeo April 6th and 7th to be held at the Field Club under the auspices of the Owen Coffman Post 519, of the American Legion.

The mayor continued by pointing out that veterans of World War II combined with those of the first World War, have pinned their hopes and dreams of a Wars Memorial building on the financial success of the most extravagant rodeo ever brought to Southern California.

MEMORIAL TRIBUTE

"That these e-soldiers realize their ambition is as equally important to the city as a whole as it is to the local Legion post," continued the mayor. "When completed the building will not only be useful to the soldier who has returned, but a memorial to those who lay beneath the soil of foreign countries."

And as for the rodeo itself, it is known that the local post has mortgaged its financial future for a long time to come and contracted for the services of Joe Lynch, big-time rodeo promoter, who has promised that he would put on

Recovering

Cherie Mashburn and Tom Griffith Gaining

Mrs. A. C. Shults, grandmother of Cherie Mashburn, who was injured in an automobile accident Saturday near Indio, reported Miss Mashburn has shown a slight improvement this week. She is suffering from a double fracture of an arm, and concussion. As yet, Mrs. Shults said, her granddaughter is only occasionally aware of her surroundings. Doctors say she will recover. Tom Griffith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Griffith, who sustained cuts and bruises as a result of the same accident, is well on the road to recovery his father declared.

The accident occurred on the state highway east of Cathedral City and involved the Model T Ford driven by young Griffith and a heavy car driven by Stanley A. Odium, 30, of Forest Hills, N. Y. Odium was charged with driving while intoxicated and is at liberty under bail of $1,000 pending hearing in Judge R. A. Moore's court, Riverside, on April 4.

Population Doubles Here

Special Census Shows Big Growth of Village In Past Six Years

Official census of Palm Springs, just completed, will show an increase of 108 per cent over the 1940 count and will materially increase the city's share of the gasoline and in lieu taxes allocated by the State of California.

This announcement was made yesterday by William E. Alworth, city manager, upon receipt of figures compiled by Guy E. Rainboth, federal census supervisor, who conducted the count here.

7,157 COUNTED
The actual figures submitted, with additional names still expected by mail, was 7,157 as compared with 3,434 tallied in 1940. It was believed that comparatively few people were missed in the tally when the enumerators worked the city.

"These figures are the preliminary total," Alworth said. "The census lists as compiled here still have to go to the Federal Census Bureau in Washington, D. C. to be checked. However, they should be substantially the same as submitted by Mr. Rainboth. The official increase in population will materially enhance the city's share of the state gasoline and in lieu taxes. Based on the 1940 census the returns to the city annually was $7,726.50 with $2.25 allocated for every person on the census rolls then. The new figures will increase this allocation by $8,376.75 to a total of $16,103.25.

There is only one hitch in these calculations according to Alworth. He pointed out that the large cities in the state have also been counting noses with their eyes on the tax money. In most of the cases where counts have been conducted, these large cities have also shown an increase.

MAY CUT SHARES

"These big increases in those cities may reduce the allocation shares," declared Alworth, "but if Palm Springs had not asked for the census, its share, based on the 1940 figures would have been materially reduced."

Alworth pointed out that the increase in the state's population has, without a doubt, brought more automobiles to California as well, and the taxes collected may also be higher. The increase in population to be shown by the census here will also reduce the per capita cost of operating the various departments of the city, he said.

Expect New High Unit To Be Ready In September

Construction of a new six-class room unit for Palm Springs high school is expected to be started soon following action yesterday when representatives of Whelan-Campbell company and Smith, Inc., contractors, signed the contract for the structure.

The contract is expected to be signed today by the local high school board on approval of County Counsel Earl Redwine.

The Whelan-Campbell company and Smith, Inc., were the successful bidders on the project, with a bid of $149,416. Harry Williams is architect for the school board and the new structure duplicates the present high school unit on Ramon road. It is expected to be ready for occupancy in the fall.

Great Event Starts Wednesday at Noon

Chairman Frank Bennett Puts Finishing Touches on Plans for First Post-War Revival of Famous Desert Attraction

Palm Springs' Tenth Annual Circus—that "desert mardi gras," that climactic social event of the season, that thrilling championship rodeo riding classic—was awaiting its cue in the wings this week-end.

And awaiting with an enthusiasm that was mounting day by day was a village-full of people ready to enjoy the first post-war revival of the Circus, a celebration that in a few short years has skyrocketed from a sand-lot, amateurish performance to an event now widely-famed wherever the magic name of Palm Springs is spoken.

General Chairman Frank Bennett, who has spent nearly three months of intensive effort to whip into shape this first peacetime production, yesterday pronounced everything in readiness for the five-day program. From the moment the schedule of activities opens at noon, Wednesday, April 3, with a Western Fashion Show and Kangaroo Court, until the last rider takes his bow in the championship Rodeo Sunday afternoon, the program will be a fitting renewal of this climactic event of Palm Springs' winter season.

EXPECT THOUSANDS

While the events between Wednesday and Saturday are designed particularly for the residents and guests of the Village, the two spectacular concluding activities—the Desert Circus Parade and the Championship Rodeo—are expected to attract thousands of visitors to the community.

Up to Wednesday night 23 floats and 12 mounted groups of riders had been entered in the parade, and many more are expected to be in Parade Chairman Phil Delano's hands by closing day Sunday. Likewise, Chairman Don Maher of the Legion rodeo committee, and Promoter Joe Lynch, were well satisfied with the top-notch entries in the two-day championship Rodeo Saturday and Sunday, April 6 and 7.

TICKETS GOING FAST

Tickets for the various events where admission charges are to be made were rapidly nearing the sell-out stage at places of sale today. Tickets for the rodeo were being sold from the booth located on Palm Canyon drive in front of the Carnell building at Andreas road. Tickets for the Village Vanities on Thursday night, the pastebards for Wednesday being sold out, are available at the Plaza theater Saturday afternoon, and Monday and Tuesday. For admission to the other events the tickets are on sale at the Circus headquarters, 311 South Palm Canyon, and the tickets on the 1946 Packard Clipper which is to be given away at the Field club at 4 p.m. Sunday, April 7, are available at most stores, hotels, lounges and other establishments in the city including the Chamber of Commerce.

One of the activities of the week that is sure to attract a throng of visitors will be open to the public at the Plaza—the Kiddies Western Fashion and Pet Show, scheduled for 1 to 3 p.m., Friday, April 5. Under the direction of a committee headed by Katherine Finchy, district school superintendent, scores of entries of youthful fashions and pets have been obtained for this popular event. Special dances have been arranged under the direction of Roy Randolph, with nearly 100 children to appear in a series of excellent performances. This event, as is the case with one or two others in the Circus Week, will be broadcast over KCMJ.

FORMAL OPENING

To the Palm Springs Woman's club and the Desert Inn go the joint honor of formally opening the 1946 Circus. Set up on the Mashie Course of the Desert Inn will be tables for approximately 400 persons who will attend the opening luncheon, Western Fashion Show, Kangaroo Court and coronation of the Mexican Colony's Circus Queen. This event opens at 12:30 p.m., Wednesday. For the hundreds of persons unable to buy luncheon tickets there will be general admission tickets on sale at the Circus headquarters and by members of the Woman's club downtown. This inaugural activity always is a sparkling curtain raiser for the Circus program.

On the night of the opening day the first performance of that stellar stage show, The Village Vanities, will be presented in the Plaza theater. Out of two solid months of intensive work on the

Three Spots Get Reprieve

Extension of Time On Licenses Granted By State Board

Acting at Sacramento late yesterday, the state liquor control board granted last minute extensions to three local spots which had recently been ordered to discontinue serving "on sale" liquor on Sunday, March 31.

Applications filed by Charles Farrell of the Racquet club, where the Big Top Ball is scheduled next week, and by Earl Gray of the Rainbow Room and Rolly Room, were favorably acted upon by the board yesterday.

NO WORD LAST NIGHT

At a late hour yesterday no word had been received of the status of the other three places affected by the March 31 closing order, the Pogo Pogo, Bill Ude's and the Zanzibar.

The state board's action was based on the contention that these spots held seasonal licenses, good only for nine months out of the year, and that they had been open last summer, thereby terminating their validity on March 31.

PROTESTS HEADED

Charles Farrell's protest was based on the fact that while he was at sea "a mile off the coast of Japan," his father had applied for the license on his behalf at the end of last season, believing this step was necessary. Mr. Gray declared that he had remained open all summer on suggestion of control officers themselves because of the great number of persons here during these months due to the war effort.

Notices were received at the city hall late yesterday of the filing of applications by the Racquet club, Earl Gray and Bill Ude. Mr. Ude, however, said last night that he had heard nothing. None of the other three had word at the close of the day yesterday on their status.

Escaped German Prisoners Caught

Three German prisoners of war who escaped from the prisoner's stockade at Torney General hospital early Tuesday morning only enjoyed a short period of liberty. Early Thursday morning Tia Juana police reported to federal authorities here that they had the Germans in custody.

After breaking out of the stockade the Germans made their way to the motor pool at the local Army Air Base sometime between 4:30 and 6 a.m., stole an army staff car and drove away. The automobile was found abandoned near the Mexican border. The men were listed as Josef Grubel, 22; Martin Dullinger, 23, and Guenter Ellerbrake, 22.

Building Still Soaring Here

Building continued its phenomenal pace here during the week with $651,750 worth of new construction authorized by the city building department since last Wednesday.

Total construction begun in March up to Wednesday night was valued at $3,638,200.

For 1946 to date, building permit figures, P. M. Swart, assistant public works manager, said, are $4,229,880.

Mr. Swart said he was not sure what effect the new building restriction would have on local building and was awaiting further interpretations of the ruling.

Seek Villain

Dog Poisoner Menace
To Children Here

Police are seeking a dog poisoner who last week poisoned five pets at the Desert Trailer Village. The poisoner placed strychnine in sausages which he left lying around.

"Besides the point that such activities are reprehensible, they also constitute a grave danger to children," said Chief G. A. Kettmann. "There are legal methods of taking care of unwanted animals and the placing of poison in food threatens the lives of innocent children. Prosecution will follow if we get our hands on the poisoner."

Coordinating Committee Expresses
Thanks to Mayor E. E. Therieau for His Services on Eve of Retirement

Presiding at the final session of the Mayor's Coordinating Council before he retires from offices two weeks hence, Mayor Eugene Therieau was given a vote of thanks by organization representatives on the council for his foresight in establishing it and his leadership during the difficult war years.

The meeting, held Friday at the Desert Inn, was marked by numerous expressions of gratitude from the organization representatives who declared that the Coordinating Council had served a great purpose in keeping all groups aware of the problems and activities of the others. Each organization of the Village is represented at the monthly luncheon meetings. Continuation of the Council will be urged.

CITES FINANCING NEED

Responding to the vote of thanks, Mayor Therieau thanked the members for their regular attendance and their interest in the operation of the Council.

"In leaving the City Council office it is in the hope that Palm Springs will find a way to provide the city government with the additional funds it needs to meet its ever-mounting expenses brought on by the tremendous development here," the city's executive officer said in response to a request for his recommendations as to the city.

INCOME LIMITED

"Our income now is sharply limited by the ceiling on the tax rate, but demands for city services, protection and inspections are pyramiding daily. We must meet the problems head-on if we are to keep Palm Springs the place we all want it to be. Only by making sure that the city government is adequately financed can this be assured."

"It has been a deep pleasure for me to preside at the meetings of the Coordinating Council. If it has accomplished anything during these trying years, I shall feel amply repaid for any effort upon it. I want to thank all organization representatives for their very informative and valuable reports, given to the Council each month," he said.

THANKS TO BENNETT

Frank Bennett, representing the Desert Circus, was acting chairman as the vote of gratitude to the mayor was voted.

Presenting the first of the organization reports, Frank Cutler, chairman of the Home-Owners League, disclosed that the League had appropriated $500 toward the fund to employ an expert city planner for preparation of a master plan for the Village. He also told of the activities of the League in scrutinizing requests for zoning changes and variances now deluging the Planning Commission, it being the goal of the League to back up the Commission in its efforts to maintain the integrity of the residential property in Palm Springs. He highly praised the sound thinking and good intentions of the Commission members. Hopes that first steps will be taken soon in the formation of a city-wide garden club by a committee headed by Melba Bennett were voiced by Mr. Cutler.

FORWARD STEP

Chairman Charles Burket of the Planning Commission declared that the commission feels that the employing of a technical advisor on preparation of a master plan is a great forward step for Palm Springs.

That the total enrollment of the year, representing all students who have been in the classes at any time, had exceeded 300 at the Palm Springs high school was revealed by Dr. Ernest Oertel, principal. The present attendance is 211 and the average daily attendance for the year will exceed 200, materially higher than previous years. He said the crowded conditions at the school have become worse each month and that the six new classrooms to be constructed under the contract to be let. The low bid of $149,766 was considerably higher than the estimate but not out of line with other recent comparable bids, he said, adding that many public agencies have found it difficult to obtain any bids on their projects. Plans for Public Schools Week in April when the schools of the city will hold open house were told by Dr. Oertel, who took the occasion to report that check-ups of the educational system here by university representatives have shown the scholastic standing and curriculum rate high. Dr. Oertel will represent Palm Springs at the Conference of Secondary Principals in San Francisco, April 17, 18 and 19 and will participate on a panel dealing with redistricting of California school districts.

PLANS OUTLINED

Commenting on Dr. Oertel's remarks, Mr. Burket, member of the high school board, praised the faculty of the high school and urged Palm Springs should always pay sufficient salaries to attract the quality of instructors employed here now.

Major Bowen, operations officer at the Air Base, outlined plans of the field for Army Day observance April 6 and proffered equipment for use in the Circus Parade. On Army Day the Air Base will hold open house, with a flight demonstration and possibly a parachute jump if it can be approved. Major Bowen revealed that he will make the jump if sanction for it is granted.

WILL BE PLEASED

That Palm Springs will be "highly pleased" with the results of the special census taken recently was the belief expressed by City Manager W. E. Alworth

The towns seems to be bustling with color and excitement and well it should, for the first Circus Week since before the war is about to commence. Those of you who have never witnessed this spectacle have something to look forward to as every day there's something doing. Everyone has worked mighty hard to make Circus Week what it is, so get in the spirit and at least don western attire because those sheriffs are going to be mighty busy. Ernie Flatt, who has whipped up the dancing routines for the Vanities, is one person that has really put out, but then his job should be a pleasant one, considering the material he has to work with.

There was a hot time in the old town (well anyway, the outskirts) last Sunday night when friends of the Ted Reeds gathered at the Reed residence to give that newly married couple a real western chivaree. We hear it was quite a party but the only real information we've been able to dig up about the whole thing is that Alice Butler says she did not do it.

GAY AND GALA

Saturday night was a gay and gala evening at the Frances S. Stevens School when the Mexican Colony put on their fiesta. There certainly were some lovely costumes to be seen and the Mexican food particularly drew a large crowd—makes us long for the day when Vi and Marcus Caro will again be serving frijoles and tacos.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Gordon Nicholson and Mrs. Guy Pinney entertained at a bridge luncheon in honor of Mrs. Bill Hay and Mrs. Wilbur Downs at the home of Mrs. Pinney. Both Mrs. Hay and Mrs. Downs are vacationing in the Village and have spent many a season here in the past. Guests for the afternoon were members of the L. L. C. (try and figure that out) and old friends of the honorees.

VISIT PARENTS

The Richard Hansens and Everett Leaks were in town last week end to visit their parents, the Lauritz Hansens. Colonel Leak has been transferred to Hawaii so the Hansens' young granddaughter will visit with them until her parents have completed packing and travel arrangements. Sandra, at the age of eight, is already a seasoned traveler and has spent most of her young years in Mexico City where her father was Marine Attache. Also back in the Village after a three year absence, was Briggs Bosworth, proudly introducing his attractive wife, Deb, to all of his old friends. Coming from the Islands last week were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McDermid and two small daughters. Mr. McDermid is the manager of Sears Roebuck in Honolulu and this is their first trip back to the states since the beginning of the war. They are in the Village visiting Mrs. McDermid.

mid's mother and father, Dr. and Mrs. D. S. Barry.

Best wishes for a speedy recovery to Mrs. Henry Reid who is recuperating from a recent illness at Loma Linda.

Palm Village

Washington rains have brought many visitors from the north to the desert this winter — signing the guest book at the Palm Village Inn were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Haven, Mr. and Mrs. K. O. Hoose, Mr. and Mrs. Lester J. Palmer, Dr. and Mrs. Howard C. Sharp, Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Maryott all of Seattle and Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Walker of Tacoma.

Francisco Gutron Montes de Oca flew in with a party from Mexico City. Other guests at the Inn were: Mr. and Mrs. George Conroy, White Bear Lake, Minn., Dr. and C. H. McLeal, Oakland, Miss Margaret Larson, White Horse, Canada, Ruth Eberly, Albuquerque, New Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. McLain Russell, Chicago, and Mrs. William Fraser and Mrs. Helen Stephens, Mitchell, South Dakota.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Van Der Meid bought a beautiful corner lot in Palm Village and plan to build their home here. Cuddles Sakal of the movies visited Palm Village this week.

The beautiful pool in the village is a very popular spot with the residents and their guests these days. It is a pleasant place to sun bathe and large enough for real swimmers. The tennis court and badminton court are much in demand too. William J. Meyer A.I.A., of Los Angeles will be in the Palm Village Land Office on Wednesday of each week, by appointment. Mr. Meyer is a well known architect. Wasn't March 21 supposed to usher in the official spring? Anyway, the first strawberries are here, and are they luscious! Strawberry short-cake coming up. The berries are raised by Weg Greene, in the Village, who says he will have boysenberries next month, too.

What Goes On in Rancho Mirage

By DON CAMERON

George Boldin, senior vice commander 21st District Department of California American Legion, having disposed of his Mecca Date Gardens is settling down to the simple life at Rancho Mirage. In my opinion he will be the next district commander. He has been contacting some of the local veterans about forming a Rancho Mirage Post. When the post is formed, Mrs. Agnes Boldin, past district president, will see the local gals regarding the Auxiliary. When George rides by with the '40 and '8 Riverside Voiture in the big Rodeo parade on April 6, yell out that you want to join the local post.

Our busy little man, Don Maher, has been so wrapped up with the Palm Springs Round Up and Rodeo that if he doesn't get back pretty soon to the Rancho by the Gulcho, the vines won't have tender grapes. Don says Joe Lynch has quit rural life out this way for the bright lights of Palm Springs and his super-human efforts towards putting over the Rodeo.

A hard boiled colonel was softened by our local sunshine when Colonel and Mrs. Percival G. Hart spent the week end as guests of the Lyle Harpers. After walks and talks and a fly over the desert with Norm Granger, our local air port manager, the colonel sent for his furniture in Chicago, so Illinois has lost another native son to the climate of Southern California.

At the Krull menage this week the poet laureate of R. M. and Mrs. K. R. 11 are entertaining Mrs. Charles Conway of San Francisco and Jeanne Dennis of Salinas. Jeanne was a Wave directing the landing of planes in Texas.

Norm Williams, the head man down Palm Village way told Colonel Bob Ellsworth a thing or two about wearing those city slicker clothes. So this old fellow had to take him down to Mac McNamara at Desmonds and get him rigged out in brand new westerns. Watch for him in the parade.

Ted Hutchison is down Mexico way. He and his mother, a vigorous lady of eighty and a member of a pioneer California family, are looking over the Sonora Desert. In the good old days Ted's father, who was a doctor, took his family on extended vacations in the California deserts and the Sierra Nevadas. We are hoping Ted will bring back some rare plants for his Rancho Mirage Garden.

After comparing sunspot records with the history of the world a French astronomer came to the conclusion that wars come when sunspots are at their maximum and that peace is most common when they are at their minimum.

Ranch Supper at La Paz Attracts Villagers, Visitors

Sunday night's old fashioned Ranch supper followed by dancing outside on the tennis court at La Paz was its usual success with a large group of village residents and many winter visitors assembled with the La Paz guests to enjoy the festivities.

Several local groups made up large parties of house guests and friends to attend the supper and dance. Part of the fun of the Sunday night parties, which have become a tradition in the Village this season, is to see the youngsters join in the Western dance steps and learn just as rapidly as their parents. One of the cutest young pairs swinging into the Varsouviana with their tiny cowboy boots are Jimmy Fouch with his little sister, Jeanie. Another pre-teen age couple out on the court for each square dance and Virginia Reel were Louise Alexander and Master Llewellyn Thatcher, who left with his family for Englewood, N. J., following a three months stay at La Paz.

ENJOY VACATION

Returning veterans, who now are attending Stanford, are enjoying their spring vacation playing tennis and swimming at La Paz. Carl Stolle, who recently exchanged his army pilot uniform for campus clothes, with his family the Carl Stolle seniors of Spokane, are occupying the penthouse suite for the week. Both father and son are wearing discharge buttons; the father having been in the quartermaster corps of the Ninth Service Command.

Young Bob Rutledge, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Rutledge of Oakland, joined his family here when Stanford closed for the week. Bob, being one of the top tennis players on that college's team, has been playing exhibition matches at the Tennis club during his stay. The Rutledge family, who are well known Palm Springs visitors each season, hoped to have their Dartmouth student son out for the week, but his studies kept him in the east.

MOONLIGHT RIDE

Last week's full moon was the occasion for a moonlight horseback ride to a spot on the desert near Araby Point, where the riders were greeted by a cheery camp fire and dismounted for refreshments. Cliff Campbell, the singing cowboy, entertained during the outdoor festivities for the assembled guests from La Paz.

With Circus Week events filling the calendar, the next Western dance at La Paz—and probably the last of the season—will be held Sunday night, April 14.

Village Aerial Future Discussed

Harry Harper, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce here was the main speaker at the National Aeronautical Association, Palm Springs chapter, meeting Tuesday at the La Cita. Jack West, secretary of the Southern California Council of the N. A. A. also spoke.

Both speakers outlined what they believed would aid Palm Springs in staying on the aerial map. It was decided to carry out these suggestions at a future meeting of the association. Norman Granger, newly elected president, presided and Mrs. Clema Granger was officially thanked for her excellent handling of the presidency last year.

Former Torney Sergeant Pines for the Village While Hibernating in Gotham

Local friends of Jerry Masiello, formerly a sergeant at Torney and now a civilian in New York City, will be interested in learning that New York City holds no attraction for Jerry after his sojourn in Palm Springs. The following paragraphs are excerpts from a letter received recently by one of his friends here:

"You people don't know how fortunate you are to be basking in the hot sun. I'm just eating my heart out for California, and I'd give my left arm to be back there. I know I'll never be happy until I return.

"Now for Palm Springs... I've been doing more day-dreaming lately about that place. I travel up and down Palm Canyon drive, in and out of all the 'spots,' recalling the cool and quenching whiskey sours at the Chi-Chi and the Rainbow, and picturing Leo Rojo at the piano with his personality smile, pouring his heart and soul into song at the Doll House. And Little Tommy, the bartender, with his unusual sense of humor, is he still there? Thanks so much to that recording of 'Babalu' by Felix and Leo. It brings back many memories of Palm Springs, and I can picture both Leo and Felix each time I play the record.

"One thing I shall never forget is the scent of orange blossoms, walking back to Torney at night, and the huge wall of mountains surrounding the desert. And how I used to enjoy the walks to the Canyon, and the cool spray of the Falls on my body. These are among the many things I remember about Palm Springs—and also the many friends I made there.

"I wonder if the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce is interested in a good salesman? I've tried to sell everyone I have met on packing their bags and going West, so if there is a sudden increase in the population there, you'll know who is responsible. I certainly appreciate your offer to send me the Palm Springs papers. I'll enjoy them immensely, as I'm still pining away for the place, and in my heart I shall always be there."

"Our chemists wise, it comes to pass, Are making milk from grain and grass; But lovers of this fluid say They still prefer the udder way."

A Message To The Veterans

By ETHEL GILLET WHITEHORN

Emotional propaganda, released by the New Deal-PAC, attempts to convince the veterans that many Republicans and some southern Democrats in the House of Representatives went to great lengths to scuttle the badly needed housing program. The truth is that those congressmen, who engaged the left-wingers in factual debate, tried to pass legislation that would give decent homes to the veterans instead of cheap, prefabricated dwellings with rooms no larger than a cracker box or a chicken coop in which no ambitious forward-looking American would want to live.

These same Congressmen firmly resisted the efforts of the left-wingers to smother the veterans under another sprawling bureaucracy composed of snoopers whose chief delight for the past thirteen years has been to pry into the affairs of American citizens. They believe that veterans' homes should be built by private enterprise with thousands of skilled and unskilled veterans sharing in the construction of them. They know that it was the genius of private enterprise which built this nation in peacetime and out-produced all nations put together in wartime. And finally, they believe that instead of granting a $600,000,000 subsidy to manufacturers of construction material, Chester Bowles of OFA should remove senseless restrictions and permit business to go ahead.

AID VETERANS

As one congressman said, "If the 'delirium Truman' administration believes a $600,000,000 subsidy is necessary, why not give it to our veterans instead of to the manufacturers who neither want nor need it?"

During the debate on the House Stabilization bill, Congressmen George Outland of Monterey, San Luis Obispo, Ventura and Santa Barbara counties, injected a few political angles. He stated that "Republican strategists foresee a clear majority of at least nine seats in the House of Representatives next January, four to six of those seats to be won by California Republicans." Mr. Outland further stated that "such an opportunity disappeared in the Republicans' attempt to kill the housing bill and I expect to speak at every opportunity to veterans' groups and to tell them just who is responsible for scuttling their hopes for a decent, comprehensive plan."

The veterans, as well as all voters in Mr. Outland's congressional district should ask him this question—"Will you also explain to the veterans why, on June 4, 1945, you and seven other California Democratic congressmen voted against the Veterans' Priority bill, the purpose of which is to staff our hospitals properly so that thousands of wounded men suffering with broken bodies, broken hearts and broken minds would receive sufficient and proper care?" (Congressional Record, June 4, 1945—pages 5612-5620.)

NAMES NAMED

Thirty nine votes were cast against that bill, Mr. Outland—39 out of a membership in the house of 435. The eight California congressmen who voted against it are YOU, Helen Gahagen Douglas, Ned Healy, Chet Hollifield, Ed Isaac, Cecil King, George Miller and Alfred Elliott. This is the year when the voters of California should remove every leftwing congressman who advocates and votes for a continued bureaucratic control of the American people. Our veterans have more than earned the right to own attractive, livable homes. Real Americans, who believe in the American way of life, want them to have those homes free and clear of New Deal red tape. And they shall have them, if, in November of this year, enough red-blooded Americans get out and vote for a Republican congress.

Stores To Close On Day of Parade

Store owners of Palm Springs today were asked by the Retail Merchants committee of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce to remain closed on Saturday, April 6, day of the annual Circus Parade, until 1 p.m.

With most of the larger firms already in agreement on the plan to give the employees Saturday morning off to attend the Tenth Annual Desert Circus Parade, the Chamber of Commerce committee of which Joseph Butler is chairman, holds hopes for making a uniform closing of all establishments.

All food stores of the Village will be closed until 1 p.m., under an agreement reached among the store owners. Managers Jack Ballard and James Coffman of Bullocks and Desmonds, respectively, announced that their firms also will not open until 1 p.m., and most other clothing stores are following suit.

Meanwhile some store generally open all day Sunday are planning to close for the afternoon that day to make it possible for their employees to attend the Championship Rodeo and Packard Clipper award at the Field Club.

Someone To Get New Packard Car

Today some fortunate village resident or guest was only ten day away from the breath-taking gift of a 1946 Packard Eight Clipper sedan!

At 4 p.m., April 7, at the Field club the beautiful two-tone green Packard four-door sedan will be handed over to its new owner.

FINISHING TOUCHES—It's gonna be good, this show coming up next week—the Village Vanities next Wednesday and Thursday at The Plaza. #### MORE ABOUT . . .

Desert Circus

part of Mrs. Melba Bennett and her cohorts, and out of weeks of night-after-night of rehearsals has come a show that would be a credit to a city many times the size of Palm Springs. Its music has all been especially written by noted composers, and orchestrated for the performance here. Its dances have been arranged by experts, and its tom-folery acts will be unexcelled. And there will be plenty of the latter. The Vanities has become an institution in the Circus program. More than 1600 persons will witness it on the two nights of its production.

AT ROGERS RANCH

At noon Thursday Trav Rogers, long a leading figure in Palm Springs Circus history, will be host at one of the famed Rogers Ranch barbecues and entertainment, with a Kangaroo Court as an added feature. Tickets for this event are on sale at the Stables and the Circus headquarters. Principal entertainers of Palm Springs will appear on the program.

Friday will be given over to the Kiddies Western Fashion and Pet Show, with Friday night the only open night of the schedule.

The Tenth Annual Circus Parade moves away from its assembly area near Torney General hospital at 10 a.m., Saturday. With numerous floats adding beauty and humor to the event, and with mounted riders, sheriff's posses and other similar entries, the parade holds promise of making history for the Circus.

From as far distant as Las Vegas had come entries this week, and numerous sections of Southern California were represented. The entry list up to Wednesday night of this week looked as follows to Chairman Phil Delano and his Los Compadres committee members:

Host at a buffet luncheon and entertainment at the Palm Springs Tennis club between 12:30 and 2:30 p.m., Saturday, April 6, Manager Lee Bering of the club promises a program of exceptional interest in addition to the delicious food of the club.

At 2:30 the first of the two performances of the Championship Rodeo begins at the Field club. For this even the top riders of the West and the best stock of California are assured for the program. A sell-out of tickets is predicted for both days.

Big Top Ball Success Assured

If you have been planning to attend Charlie and Virginia Farrell's swanky Big Top Ball and the matter of a costume has been worrying you, cheer up, for your worries are over.

"Ringmaster" Farrell announced today that representatives of a Los Angeles costume company will be at the old El Mirador Tennis Club buildings starting Saturday and on duty until the night of the Big Top Ball, climaxing event of the Tenth Annual Circus and crowning social event of Palm Springs' social season.

TWO STIPULATIONS

Measurements for costumes will be taken by the two women on duty at the El Mirador club and orders sent to Los Angeles. The outfits will be dispatched as soon as possible. The only requirement is that the person ordering the costume must pay a deposit and must be satisfied with what he receives, times being what they are.

Persons planning on attending the ball are urged by Mr. Farrell to visit the temporary costume room at their earliest possible convenience as the work of outfitting the hundreds of persons must be completed within a seven-day period.

PLANS PROGRESSING

With arrangements going forward to take care of 500 persons, Charlie Farrell voiced complete satisfaction with the plans for the gala affair which traditionally has been the highlight of Circus Week.

He asks that everyone planning on attending pay attention to the detail of reservations.

"The purchase of tickets to the Big Top Ball does not make the reservation; this must be arranged at the Racquet club," he explained.

FAMED BAND COMING

Skinny Ennis, nationally-famed band leader, and his celebrated musicians, will provide music for dancing for the throng of happy celebrants. A Samba orchestra also will be available for music early and late and during the intermissions so that there will be continuous dancing except during the exciting period of the one-ring Circus show for which the Racquet club maestro has obtained outstanding entertainment.

Ticket sales have delighted him; already the total is near 400 and the remainder will be gone within a few days.

Circus To Be On Air in Big Way

Inaugurating radio station KCMJ's participation in the Tenth Annual Desert Circus program, three prominent Villagers, Priscilla Chaffey, Frank Bogert and Anthony Burke, were heard over the Palm Springs station Monday night in a historical review of the preceding annual productions of the "desert Mardi gras."

Beginning next Monday, KCMJ will have a busy schedule of activities on the air promoting and "covering" the Desert Circus, these broadcasts being highlighted by a unique "Circus Barker" broadcast twice daily, 1:45 to 2 p.m., and between 4 and 4:15 p.m. at the Plaza theater. This will be the "man-in-the-street" broadcast and the public is invited to participate, according to Manager Clint Jones.

The three Villagers in their broadcast Monday night traced the history of the Circus from its meager beginnings in 1933 on a sandlot at the junction of Palm Canyon drive and the Indio highway. They recalled such outstanding events as the time that Nellie Coffman, beloved woman of the Desert Inn, rode a rumbling elephant down Palm Canyon drive. The noted grand marshalls of the parades, the celebrated name list being led by Leo Carrillo and Gene Biscailuz, were reported.

After bringing the Circus up to the current production, the three forum speakers outlined details of the big five-day schedule that is expected to make the 1946 edition outstanding. Efforts are being made by the publicity department of the Circus to arrange more such broadcasts on time offered by KCMJ during Circus week.

Through the assistance of William Nash, manager of the Palm Springs office of the California Water and Telephone company, a special line has been extended to the Field club from which portions of the Championship Rodeo will be broadcast between 3 and 3:45 p.m., Saturday, and between 4 and 4:30 p.m., Sunday.

Private First Class Anthony J. Andreas, AWOL from the Birmingham hospital in Utah, was apprehended by police here and turned over to military authorities at the local army base here.

Mexican Colony's Fiesta Successful And Satisfying

Delicious enchiladas, tostadas, tamales and refritos, native dances and songs featured the Mexican Fiesta at the Frances Stevens school last Saturday, March 23. The attendance of villagers was more than anticipated but at no time was there a lack of food to fill the most hungry.

The Fiesta was in the nature of a benefit to raise money for the construction of a float to be entered by the Mexican colony during the parade Circus Week.

The food was cooked by volunteer Mexican women under the supervision of Marcus Caro. Colorful dances presented were staged by Roy Randolph and Frank Bogert, formally introduced the candidates for the Mexican Queen to preside during Circus Week. They were Helen Prieto, Helen Ayala, Estrella Prieto, Candelaria Reyes, Barbara Herrera, Victoria Ortega, Ortencia Ortega, Felicitas Mediano, Rafaela Marmolejo, Mercedes Rios, and Lupe Rios.

SPOTS

Before Your Eyes
By BILL RASHALL

Cafe society on Palm Canyon drive has really gone off the beam—and all because of a guy by the name of Ernie Baron at The Lido, who does a novelty act. Dan Danzinger, proprietor, is beside himself for the want of knowing what to do with the throngs of people that swarm into his place to see and here Baron go through his pantomimic act.

Jeanne Keller at Mr. Dees, who packs them in every night there, was at the Lido Wednesday night for a postman's holiday from her piano. She followed Baron with her act and kept the crowd enthralled for a good half hour.

Right across the street at the Dunes, was Thelma and Bill Davis. They have been seen out more and more lately since the dining room of the Colonial House burned down. Said Mrs. Davis, "Have to eat out because Bill has forgotten how to cook." And according to Mrs. Davis, the Colonial House dine and dance department is going to be one of the most gorgeous places in Palm Springs at the beginning of the winter season in October. Plans are completed and work will begin soon.

Al Epstein and his wife at the Chi Chi, dining with friends and oblivious to all who pass their table, so engrossed are they in conversation with friends. And that strawberry blonde, the new baire d' there — even those menus look appetizing in her arms.

James Edward Marting, II, Virginia and Washington, D.C. portrait painter, formerly with The Saturday Evening Post, associated with Matloff's Studio. He just loves to paint horses in action. At the Luau, where Porretta opens Saturday, he was giving me an idea of how he does the job, too. Intends to be right in front of the chute at the Palm Springs Rodeo, catching those wild broncs as they come out with their riders.

Chief of Police August Kettmann must know most everybody in San Jose, his old home town. This week he was seen around town with Mr. and Mrs. Louis Campiglia, he the president of the C & H Sugar company. In addition to Mrs. Kettmann, there was also Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Brien and Mr. and Mrs. Burdette Hartman, of San Jose.

Rancho Mirage and Palm Village forgot their rivalry as to which is the best place for future investment values, to make an evening of it. In town was the big boss for Palm Village, Norman Williams, and showing him how Palm Springs can sparkle under neon lights were Mr. and Mrs. Don Cameron of Rancho Mirage. To listen to Norman and Don talk, the biggest mistake a person could make would be not to buy a lot at either place, or better still, both.

Visitors Here Plan to Enter Into Spirit of Western Week With Full Enthusiasm, Desert Inn Poll Shows

By MARY WALKER

With Circus Week close at hand, guests of the Desert Inn have been scouring the Village for western attire. Although many last minute arrivals will enter into the spirit of things simply by the addition of a colorful cowboy scarf, all plan to don these togs next Wednesday noon when the eagerly anticipated opening event—the Western Fashion Show Luncheon and Kangaroo Court—over at the Desert Inn Mashie Golf Course, starts the week of fun off in true western manner.

With the lovely Ruth Roberson of the Desert Inn family reigning as Queen of the festivities, Circus Week this year holds special significance for the guests. All ready the Inn has taken on a holiday air as many of the younger set have gotten into their western regalia.

SEATTLE SCORES

One of the gayest shirts we have yet encountered was worn by Gilbert L. Duffy here from Seattle for the event. Home after four years spent in the Pacific, Gilbert arrived ten days ago to join his mother, Mrs. Gilbert L. Duffy, who is wintering at the Inn.

Even the very small fry have gone western in anticipation of the gay week ahead. Little Stevie Purdy who has been a general pet at the Inn for the past month, found himself in the midst of some special attention a few days ago when he toddled into the lobby wearing a western sombrero at a rakish angle. Stevie is the year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce B. Purdy of Appleton, Wisconsin.

THROUGH APRIL

Alan H. Means of Guest Lake City, who has been a guest at the Inn for the past two weeks, was in Los Angeles to greet Mrs. Means when she arrived by plane from New York on Tuesday. Returning here, they plan to remain at the Inn through the month of April. Mrs. Means, who has served as President of the Girl Scouts of America for the past two terms, has just returned from a meeting of that great organization which was held in Atlantic City.

Many theatre parties will be given by guests of the Inn at the Village Vanities. Among those making gala plans for this event are Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Brien of San Jose, Mr. and Mrs. L. Campiglia of San Francisco, Hon. Chief Justice and Mrs. Wendell B. Farris of Vancouver, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Flint of Birmingham, Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. George Roberson, Mrs. Gilbert Duffy of Seattle, Mrs. Elizabeth Adams and Mrs. Marie Glover of Beverly Hills, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Coffman, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Tack and Mrs. Donald Thompson of Sewickley, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Van V. Lain of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Burki of Pittsburgh, Pa., and many others.

HERE AND THERE

Mrs. Mark Lewis of Los Angeles, who with Mrs. W. I. Hollingworth was at the Inn over the weekend, was particularly interested in plans for the Queen of the Desert Circus, because back in 1896 she was the Queen of the Los Angeles Fiesta, the third person to hold that honor. . . . Those illustrated travelogues which Jack Breed presented in the lobby two evenings of this week were received with great enthusiasm of the guests. Jack has recently returned after serving four years as a Lt. in the Navy Air Forces. . . . Personable Johnnie Boyle is back among us with his guitar, and plans are being completed for many old time picnics out on the desert. Among the many guests who have been anxiously awaiting Johnnie's return are the George L. Colford's of Pittsburgh, Mrs. John C. Snyder of Crawfordsville, Indiana, Mr. H. K. Brooks and Mr. L. H. Weber of Bend, Oregon, the Howard Flints of Birmingham, Michigan and many others who have been coming to the Inn for many seasons. . . . The Carl Anderson's were here over the weekend, and spent their days at the pool getting deep suntans. . . . Artists in our midst who are often seen at their easels on the spacious grounds include Mrs. E. R. Behrend of

Tourist Trade Topic for Lions

R. H. Hughes, field director for the All Year Club of Southern California, addressed local Lions yesterday at the Desert Inn. He spoke on the vast proportions of the tourist industry and its postwar expansion. W. R. Hilery was program chairman.

Lions Bow To Indio In Opening Contest

Before a packed crowd at the Field club March 21, the Lion's softball team in its initial game of the season went down to defeat 5 to 9 at the hands of the Indio All Stars. Tied at 2 all at the end of the fifth inning, several errors on the part of the local team gave the game to the visitors.

Big Rodeo . . .

the biggest show the community has ever witnessed.

BIG TIME SHOW

Fresh from a triumphal rodeo success at Kezar stadium, San Francisco, he came to announce that the contestants who drew a gate of 35,000 paying customers there will see the same buckaroos, wranglers and professional cowboys from the Rio Grande to the Canadian border present.

The same show will be staged on two days, Saturday, April 6 and Sunday, April 7, the windup and literally the "round-up" of what is predicted will see the biggest crowd ever to invade Palm Springs during the 10th Annual Circus Week.

In addition to the male stars of the rodeo, four champion feminine trick and bronc riders will contest with each other for championship honors. All four of them hail from California. Polly Burson, trick rider, hails from Van Nuys. Emma Burge, better known as "Pee Wee", comes from Modesto and is champion woman bronc rider. Alice Van, bareback riding horsewoman, it is reported has no par in her specialty, hails from San Bernardino. Betty Willis, another trick rider, comes from Redlands.

STARS TO ATTEND

Motion picture stars who generally vacation here between pictures, have already purchased tickets to the event and have agreed to take a part in the show itself. Mickey Rooney, just released from the army and after months of foreign duty, was among the first of filmdom's great to volunteer to take a part in the rodeo.

Being a veteran himself now, he declared that anything his buddies wanted him to do he would stand ready and willing to perform. It was recalled that he had only spent three days with his bride on their honeymoon when Rooney was called into the service. Out of the army, he came to Palm Springs to continue his war interrupted honeymoon. So far he has agreed to carry the American Flag in the mounted contingent of Legionnaires in the Circus Parade and will ride the Owen Coffman Post's entry during the festivities preceding the rodeo.

MANY IN VILLAGE

Cary Grant is in Palm Springs, as is Van Johnson, the latter considered "bobby-socks" attraction number one. Also Bill Powell, Diana Lewis, Paul Lukas, Rosalind Russell and Irene Dunne have been seen on the streets here and are expected to be present. Many other stellar celebrities are here too. The word has been passed on to the Legion that many of them will definitely be at the rodeo, if for nothing else, then to increase the box-with you in the near future and advise on concerning disposal procedure and the course of action which the city of Palm Springs should follow.

This action it was pointed out on the part of the War Assets Corporation was unexpected, especially where the designation of Torney general hospital as "real property" is concerned. In all probability that classification may place an exceptionally high valuation on the property.

At the same time the Palm Springs Community hospital in its tenancy of the temporary building on the Torney general hospital grounds, and just opened, may be placed in jeopardy.

According to Mayor Theriault, a concerted effort is now being made to either purchase the building now occupied by the hospital or to obtain assurances that the lease it now holds on the building will continue until such time as the Hospital association will be enabled to construct its own building.

"We have reasons to believe," said Mayor Theriault, "that the Hospital association will be successful in either purchasing the building or obtaining a lease." In making this declaration Mayor Theriault was speaking in his capacity as president of the Palm Springs Hospital association, an office to which he had been recently elected.

office receipts.

The Round-up rodeo is in the professional category and contestants of world renown will be drawn to it in their race for championship points, counted at the end of the current season in awarding honors. Among the events scheduled are Brahma-bull riding, saddle bronco and bareback riding. There will be a calf-roping and bull-doing contests. Another feature will be the three-quarter races and a one-quarter race in which the feminine stars will compete.

ALL WILL BE HERE

Fess Reynolds, Van Nuys rodeo clown, will be in the arena to tease into infuriated frenzy, a Brahma bull. Homer Hocombe, who did the same act until he was gored and thrown 18 feet by one of these maddened beasts was also booked to be in Palm Springs but will be unable to appear because of his injuries.

As it stands until the last paying customer goes through the turnstile at the Field club April 6 and 7, these ex-soldiers on the Rodeo committee, with Don Maher as chairman, who by the way has worked many long days since last December on this rodeo, are really sweating out a "peace-time mission, which they hope to report as: 'successfully accomplished, Buddy,' when they report financial results to the Legion post here.

ONE OF BEST—One of the best looking Western outfits we have seen is this one modeled by Sally Robinson. Blouse is chartreuse . . . pants are black . . . both decorated with red and yellow western embroidery. Both Wall Spaulding's Western Shop and Irene Cohen's Frontier Shop feature this outfit. (Photo by Bernard of Hollywood.)

Just a brief reminder that Circus Week is soon due . . . and all good Palmspringers (which we all are, of course) . . . will deck themselves out from rancho hat to cowboy boots in appropriate togs. Checked some of our shops and found that they are well prepared for the advent. . . . Vaqueros ties of every possible bright color . . . bright red and blue boots . . . Spanish style suede boleros and fringed skirts . . . lovely un-born calf shoulder strap bags . . . beaded Indian belts and Spauldings had some clever sterling silver cowboy jewelry . . . rings in the shape of a saddle and numerous cowboy jewelry.

Just a few ideas if you want to make a worth while investment for desert wear. Otherwise . . . slip on those beat-up Levis and faded plaid shirt and feel just as well clad. It doesn't matter what the outfit is . . . just so it would feel at home on a horse . . . just so you are in keeping with the spirit of Palm Springs Circus Week.

Porretta Plays In Palm Room

Bill Foldsy of the Palm Springs hotel announced the engagement of Joe Porretta and his orchestra, opening in the Palm room tomorrow night. Dinner-dancing will be featured nightly except on Monday at the hotel.

Porretta created something of a sensation in Palm Springs when he opened at the Colonial house early this season and played to the largest crowds witnessed at that hotel for a long time. They were still engaged there when fire destroyed the dining room.

Cathedral City

By W. R. HILLERY

Mrs. Mary R. Wolseth, representing the Women's club of Cathedral City took charge of the local Red Cross drive and with a fine team of volunteers is winding up the drive with an excellent record. Tony Burke needed that help and it came from the right source and for the right effort. Each organization in the village can justify its existence by its work and this one by the Women's club with Mrs. Wolseth's direction is worthy of much praise. Further than that the ladies propose the time has come to expand the Cathedral City news from my garage and road headlines to include social and club items. Being of the hob-nail variety I could never do something that just as surely needed to be done and the time for expansion has arrived. A page in The Desert Sun should in a year or two prove too small for we have a number of up and coming stores and businesses that are now advertising in a more or less hit and miss style and grouped would give more effect than they do scattered.

Just one bit of warning. About that consistency jewel.

Palm Springs and Cathedral City need each other and that is not to laugh at. Right now there is a drive on for memberships in the Desert Museum. Our community has a vital stake in this cultural center and should give it the representation from here that will insure its success.

Due to traffic congestion it seems advisable to launch a movie theater in Cathedral City and the matter of location is being studied. We want a place that shows Raymond W. Hatton films. First because they are top entertainment and cures you of certain maladies but a second good reason we want to see our neighbor more often. Mr. and Mrs. Hatton in addition to their ranch development just outside the village, this week purchased two Highway lots just west of Gus Holm's new building. And only this week I met James Ramsey who took over the new store on the east side of Gus and then Mr. Ramsey immediately had a bicycle accident that has interfered with his market activities

Desert Lore Topic at Cathedral City Women at Meeting

By FLORA J. LEE

The Women's Club of Cathedral City were given on unusual and instructive program on "Desert Lore" at their meeting, March 20, at the Town Hall. Miss Christine Lillian, speaker for the day, displayed specimens of most of the desert wild flowers, shrubs and trees and gave her experience in transplanting many of these. The ladies were greatly interested and voted the program one of the most popular and instructive that has ever been held. It was believed that programs of this type would stimulate the planting of desert growth in local gardens, suitable to go thru the summer without water, and would also prevent the grubbing out of seemingly dead weeds when these beautiful desert shrubs were in their resting stage.

Hostesses for the afternoon were: Mrs. Ethel Moon, Miss Christina Lillian, Mrs. Jane Del-faro, Mrs. A. Dawson with several willing assistants.

Mrs. Mary Wolseth gave a spirited talk on the Red Cross drive and announced she would be chairman for Cathedral if enough volunteers would assist her. Nine ladies offered their services. The town was divided among them for canvassing.

The Town Park, owned by the Chamber of Commerce, was a further matter for discussion. All felt that everything done there should be for the good of the entire community and should be approved by the majority. Picnic tables and swimming pool, it was agreed, might come after proper development had taken place and sanitary arrangements with supervision made. They voted to request the Chamber of Commerce to call a mass meeting to decide on matters which concern the users of the park area.

The annual installation of officers will take place Wednesday, April 3, at a luncheon given at the new Candy Hite's Cafe, formerly known as The Totem Pole.

Members and their guests are asked to be present at 1:30 p.m. Tickets $1.50, reservations to be made by Monday, April 1, with Mrs. Kathleen Naef, in charge of arrangements.

Six directors and twenty members and guests were present, among them Mrs. Lucy Abels, president of the Women's Club, Frank Russell, president, and Paul Clark, J. K. Wolseth, J. W. Kyle and Ben Scott, directors of the Chamber of Commerce.

April 11, 8 p.m., at Town Hall, was set as the date for the election of officers of the Civic Improvement Association to serve until October, 1947. Mrs. J. K. Wolseth was appointed chairman of the nominating committee with J. W. Kyle and R. D. Landucci.

Mrs. J. W. Kyle, secretary-treasurer, read the financial report and showed a balance of $152 in the treasury after expenditures for road work and cleaning the brush from the highway costing $304.00. It was felt that considerable progress had been made in one year of organization and that it was to the interest of every property owner to belong to the C. I. A.

A motion was proposed by Ben Scott, member of the Chamber of Commerce Park Committee, that two additional members be appointed to the Park Committee, one from the C. I. A. and one from the Women's Club. The motion was passed unanimously and was approved by Mr. Russell who, in his joint position of president of the Chamber of Commerce and of the C. I. A. was able to appoint Capt. George True on the spot. Mrs. Abels then appointed Mrs. A. Dawson as park member from the Women's Club. The request of the Women's Club for a mass meeting to be held by the Chamber of Commerce to pass on matters pertaining to public use of the park area was discussed.

The meeting turned into a social good time enjoyed by both husbands and wives. Refreshments were served.

Bazaar at Smoke Tree To Benefit Girl Scouts Here

Girl Scouts of Palm Springs will benefit tomorrow at a Bazaar to be staged at Smoke Tree ranch under direction of Mrs. Channing Wells and Mrs. Fred Johnson.

Those attending to help out the Scouts will find three ways of having their fortune told. There will be Mrs. Robert W. Palmer, mother of Bette Davis, reading tea leaves, Miss Alice Hogan, with cards and Mrs. John S. Lapp, reading palms.

Ted Slocum and Earl Holley will take charge of the auction, a feature of which will be the sale of the dress worn by Bette Davis in "Jezebel." The dress was donated by Warner Brothers.

Rotarians Hear Judge Farris

Though storm clouds gather on the international horizon, there are many "silver linings" that hold promise of a brighter day for the peoples of the world, said Chief Justice Wendell B. Farris, of the province of British Columbia, speaking before the Palm Springs Rotary club at the Desert Inn Wednesday.

Chairman of the Canadian committee of lawyers who cooperated with American lawyers in the drafting of the status for the International Court of Justice, Justice Farris is recognized as one of the most eminent jurists of the North American continent. He has been vacationing in Palm Springs and his appearance before the Rotary club was arranged by Barney Hinkle, program chairman.

Red Cross Chairman Urges Reply to Appeal

500 Envelopes Not Yet Returned, Asks Villagers to Act

Knowing that Palm Springs may not reach its Red Cross quota this year Anthony Burke, campaign chairman and his workers are asking the question: "Where are the five hundred stamped envelopes that were enclosed in the first appeal letter to over 1200 residents?" Burke is still hopeful that the envelopes, each carrying a three-cent stamp paid for out of Red Cross funds, will be returned and that the checks enclosed will put Palm Springs over the top. In appealing for their return Burke urges residents to hunt for the missing envelopes. "Is a Red Cross envelope in your desk? If so, write your check, use the envelope that was loaned you for your convenience and mail it today."

GOING TOO SLOWLY

With so many unreturned envelopes still at large the 1946 campaign is progressing too slowly and thousands of dollars are needed if Palm Springs is to reach its quota. March, Red Cross Month, is fast coming to a close and for the first time in local history the village has not exceeded its quota during the opening weeks of a national drive for funds.

The cooperation given by the business group has been excellent and some 37 businesses are now displaying posters showing 100% membership among employees. However the majority of business concerns have now made their contributions.

RAY OF HOPE

A ray of hope comes from the occasional receipt of substantial checks through the mail from unsolicited and generous visitors from out of state. Most of these guests have made their Red Cross contributions in their home communities but aware that our town is peopled in great part by transients have voluntarily wished to make additional donations here. During the past week checks have been received from the following out of town visitors: Richard C. Sullivan, Cincinnati; Mr. and Mrs. M. Holland, Mr. and Mrs. Sig Fresham, Mr. and Mrs. J. Meiselman, David Wine and Sidney Fox, all of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Paschkes of New York City. Also a group of twenty-six Chicagoans, all guests at the Colonial House banded together to make a substantial gift to the local drive.

Reservations, Costumes, for Ball in Demand

(The following comes direct—and hot—from the Racquet Club typewriter as pecked out, letter by letter, by the two index fingers of Charles Farrell, late of the Navy and later of the movies.)

Hurry, Hurry, Hurry, step right up and buy your tickets for the Big Top Ball. Reservations are now being made at the Racquet Club where the ball will be held Saturday evening, April 6, under a genuine Big Top tent. Skinnay Ennis is bringing down his band and there will be all kinds of fun and entertainment.

Costumes are obligatory, and there will be prizes for the prettiest, the funniest, and the best couple. Representatives of the Western Costume Co. of Los Angeles will be in town Saturday, March 30. They will be at what used to be the El Mirador Tennis club between Indian avenue and Palm Canyon drive in front of Torney hospital. Here you can order costumes from sketches and the costumes will be delivered later in the week. Be sure to get your costume early, although the Western Costume company will be in town all week.

Buy your tickets and get your reservations, order your costume and feel your gayest. The Biggest Show on Earth is coming to town.

Sergeant Drops Tee Shot for Ace

The thrill of making a "hole-in-one" in the ancient game of golf was experienced by Master Sergeant Andrew Jackson on the O'Donnell golf course last Sunday. The sergeant, who is stationed at the local Army Air base, was standing on the 7th tee, and using his No. 3 iron heaved one for 190 yards and was himself amazed to see the ball roll into the cup.

So that no one would doubt this miracle, the flabbergasted non-commissioned soldier turned to Dr. and Mrs. Dean E. Huchel, Los Angeles and asked if they would attest to what they had just witnessed. They agreed.

Another Market Scheduled Here For New Season

Another new food market is scheduled to be open for business here at the beginning of the 1946-47 winter season, according to an announcement just made by Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Reich. The new building now under construction on South Palm Canyon drive, will be operated by ex-Captain Herman Reich, son of the couple.

Every new modern shopping convenience will be installed, Reich declared. A. B. Crist contracting firm are erecting the building.

Jack Doolrevo, owner of the Rancho Stables, has taken over the management there following relinquishment of the lease on the popular place held by Tex Orton.

In Palestine Area

More than $4,000, enough to provide for from 12 to 14 destitute youngsters in Palestine, was raised last Sunday by the Palm Springs Jewish Women's group at a dinner staged at the home of Barney Ostrow.

Approximately 500 persons attended the event during the day and Turkey dinner was served to 255.

Musical entertainment featured Jules and Webb and the fortune teller, Florine, of the Latin Quarter, also was much in demand.

The group wished to express its thanks this week to the Palm Springs Music company, Palm Springs Plumbing and Supply, Fred Fulton's, Desmonds, Bullocks, Tailored Lady, House of Charm, Fun in the Sun, Frontier Shop, Sam and Leo, M. M. Pavney's and many other local merchants for donating articles which were auctioned off to raise more money for the fund.

J. Ketterman of the Cove contributed $360 which will take care of a youngster in Palestine for two years. The Jewish Women's group also put in $360 for the same purpose. The group, which sponsors the Youth of Alyah, was in charge of last Sunday's successful dinner event.

Musical Program To Be Presented At Woman's Club

Although a change of program for next Monday's meeting of the Palm Springs Woman's club has been necessary due to the illness of the artist scheduled to appear, a fine program of music has been arranged: Sara Carter, soprano soloist, Cheryl Scott, harpist, and Kathreen Reime, pianist.

During the past two seasons in Southern California, Sara Carter has sung a wide variety of exacting music, ranging from Schubert to Schoenberg, in concert, opera, and radio. Her varied repertoire includes songs in five languages, and several world-famous composers have chosen her to sing their works.

Cheryl Scott is a radio and concert artist. She is at present working with the Symphonettes on KMPC.

Kathreen Reime has been active in concert work in Northern California and has won many contests for her superior musicianship. She is a mature artist and is equally proficient as a soloist and accompanist. She is rapidly attaining a well deserved popularity in Southern California.

Guests will be welcome as usual; admittance by guest card, or $1.20 fee.

Former Villager Placed in Charge Of Terrific Task

The biggest, toughest sales job in American history is that entrusted to the office of the Foreign Liquidation Commission. It has to dispose of millions of dollars worth of surplus war goods. It has to recover for the taxpayers, who paid for them, as much cash as possible.

At the same time, it must sell through normal trade channels, with established priorities, all items declared surplus to the needs of the United States Government. It must not flood any market and endanger the transfer of industry to peacetime production, thus lessening employment.

It must sell within ceiling prices, provide no unfair competition with established business, keep out speculators, resist pressure from any special interest. Major E. W. Jones, QMC of Palm Springs and active in the American Legion here and who was the former quartermaster and director of supply at Torney General hospital, has been appointed as the operations officer to accomplish this job in Italy and from all indications it goes without saying that he has proven to be a trained, practical merchandiser of top rank.

Major Jones writes that an efficient organization is the first essential. Securing of public confidence is the second and the public relations department of commission will keep the public duly informed what it is doing and why it is doing it that way. It is assured that the methods of disposal are sound and reasonable and that they will have the backing of public opinion . . . and, that is the finest safeguard against any attempted back-door deal.

Los Compadres and Indio Club To Meet

Members of Los Compadres club will ride out to 11-Mile ranch Sunday morning, where they will meet the Indio Riding club for a big steak dinner and Gymkhana.

Riders are asked to leave the stables at 8:30 a.m. The event is for members only.

Give to the Red Cross.

Championship Shoot Starts Sunday at C.V. Club Range

The day which members of the Palm Springs Pistol and Rifle club have been eagerly looking forward to for several years will take place this Sunday, when they will officially open the club's new 200 yard .30 caliber range located beyond Araby Point on the old Cathedral City county road.

Announcement by Harry H. Mann, secretary, that firing this Sunday will be the first of four weekly shoots in which four medals will be awarded for expert and four for sharpshooter class at the end of the shoot, based on the average of the three highest scores out of the four scheduled. The firing will also be for army record in which scores will be turned in to the director of civilian marksmanship in Washington in which proper army rating medals will be issued to members later in the year.

The club has been fortunate in receiving from the D.C.M. 4,500 rounds of .30 caliber ammunition and the loan of two .30 caliber army Springfield rifles for use of members that do not have their own guns. The ammunition is given to members at the rate of 120 rounds per member to encourage them to take part in marksmanship practice and to fire for official records such as the shoot starting this Sunday. The club can accept a few new members in which they will be assured the ammunition requisition. Those interested are urged to contact Mann at 366 N. Palm Canyon drive for membership information.

Weber's BREAD-TIME STORIES

KITCHEN TRICK

WHEN TIME for serving dinner is uncertain, boil your potatoes in the top of your double boiler. Then when mashed, return them to stove with water simmering in lower part. They'll stay hot for hours.

HOUSEHOLD HINT

YOU'LL HAVE much prettier hands if you'll use a pair of cotton gloves when washing clothes. It saves the knuckles and nail polish and it is remarkable how much more "elbow grease" you can muster up.

RECIPE

QUICK SKILLET HASH

1 lb. ground round steak 1 tsp. Worcester-shire sauce
2 medium chopped onions 2 c. sliced raw potatoes
2 tbsp. salad oil 1½ c. water
salt and pepper

Brown beef in salad oil, add potatoes, water, salt and pepper to taste. Cover and simmer 30 minutes. Add onions and Worcestershire sauce and cook for 15 minutes longer. Serves 4 to 6.

Palm Springs High Elected President Of DAA Federation

One of the biggest G. A. A. events of the year took place on Saturday, March 23, at Redondo Beach high school. Fifty-eight schools of 300 girls were represented at the annual Girl's Athletic Federation conference. Our representatives were Betty Ann Lilley, Shirley Renville, DeLorse Roth, Joanne Hookey, Sally Robinson and Mrs. Moya Henderson. Palm Springs was elected President of the G. A. F. for the following year. Both Palm Springs and Riverside were nominated, but Riverside declined, due to improper facilities.

From 9:30 a.m. until 10:00 a.m. the girls registered. Following this, a general business meeting was held in the auditorium, during which the ballot was presented. Then the standardizing of points was discussed. Five different schools were asked to give reports on their system of giving points. The girls then adjourned to the cafeteria for a luncheon.

After lunch, they went back to the auditorium where they were addressed by Miss Dorothy Preble of Preble School for Models, who talked to them on Futures Unlimited. With her was one of her models, Kathryn Cassidy, who was discovered by Howard Hughes. She demonstrated walking, sitting, etc. When this was over, the girls went to separate meetings. Betty Ann went to a meeting of the Sports Calendar, Joanne and Sally to the New and Old Executive Board meeting, Shirley to the Social Events meeting, DeLorse to the Intermural meeting, and Mrs. Henderson to the Advisor's meeting.

The new executive board is as follows: President, Palm Springs; Vice-President, Ojai; Secretary, Redlands; Treasurer, Laguna. Members at large are Beverly Hills, Burbank, and Redondo Beach. A committee was chosen from the schools and advisors to do further research on standardization and make a report at the next year's conference. Each school has been asked to send in their constitutions and point systems in order to facilitate this research.

We all feel that the conference was a great success. The girls were interested and enjoyed themselves immensely. We plan to make the G. A. F. conference here at our school next year, just as well organized, if not better than any preceding conference.

Incoming Students

By RICHARD LANGE

While this school year is nearing an end we still have an increasing number of students coming in week after week. I would like you to meet two who have come in this last week.

The first new student I will discuss this week is a boy who has come all the way from Pennsylvania to enroll in our little school. He was born in the little town of Hatboro, Pennsylvania, and he has lived there most of his life. The last school he attended was the Hatboro high school and he entered Palm Springs as a freshman. He is now 14 years old, short, blonde hair with a G. I. haircut. Meet Joseph Johnson.

The next new member that we now see on our campus is a girl who enrolled at Palm Springs as a junior and is very nice-looking (so I hear). You can't miss her because she has long black curly hair and is tall. She was born in Los Angeles and has been attending the Fremont high school in Los Angeles. She is now 17 years old and is living at Desert Hot Springs. I would like you to meet Georgiana Ross.

Juniors Winners Of Class Meet At High School

The class track meet came to an official end on Monday, March 25, and the juniors emerged as victors.

On Monday, fifth place in the 50-yard dash was run over and the results placed the seniors a half point ahead, but a mistake in classification was made. Bobby Flavin was classed as a sophomore instead of a junior. When the mistake was corrected it placed the juniors 4½ points ahead. The scores for the different classes are: Juniors 71; Seniors 66½; Sophomores 33½; Freshmen 9.

Two interesting facts about the meet and its contestants are that all class track records were broken and that last year when the juniors were sophomores they walked away with the class track meet by piling up a score of 95 points.

The boys in P. E. who weren't running in the track meet were playing soccer. In a week or so soccer may be exchanged for touch football. The exchange will be to help develop muscles for next year's football season.

Sophomore Spring Dance Termed Best Of Year to Date

By BARBARA JONES

The sophomore class gave the first spring dance of the year last Friday, March 22. Much originality in the food and decorations helped to make it the best dance of the year as termed by many. At one end of the school auditorium, Jim Carlin took snap-shots for 25¢ in a lattice arbor decorated with artificial flowers in spring colors as the background.

At the opposite end of the auditorium refreshments were served from decorated bars on each side of the stage. Even the refreshments were the breath of spring — orange sherbet floats, cake and cookies. The stage was made into a spring garden where there were small tables for the guests to have their refreshments. The tables were garnished with lace doilies in all the spring colors and lighted by candles.

The dancers especially appreciated the lovely atmosphere of the candlelight dance floor and one had the illusion of being outside with the gaily decorated ceiling. Streamers of all colors were twisted from the center of the ceiling to all corners of the room.

It was wonderful to have the coldness of the auditorium made warm by the lovely decorations.

The regular routine of dancing was broken by a lemon dance in which couples were eliminated until two couples, Joey Flavin and Barbara Jones, and Elaine Naish and Ralph Woodward were left to dance it out. The point of the dance was to get rid of the lemon that was passed to you—if you were in possession of the lemon when the music ended you must sit down. With just two couples left on the floor the contest became a running contest instead of dancing. Elaine and Ralph were acclaimed victors of the game—their prizes were the juice of the lemon and free refreshments and snapshots.

ON THE WARPATH

By ED WILLS

The week's athletic schedule was somewhat depleted due to the cancellation of the Banning softball game and the absence of an interscholastic track meet as our schedule drew a bye.

The Banning contest was temporarily called off due to the death of Dr. William C. Gunderson, Superintendent of the Banning school district. The game will be played off later in the season, probably on some week day.

Because of the absence of a scheduled track meet Coach Thompson held the annual intramural class meet during P. E. periods and after school. So far it seems that the junior class has overshadowed all competition. The class of '47 won a decisive victory last year as the sophomore class and even though the scoring is much closer this year it looks like the second consecutive class championship.

The only interscholastic sport involving the maroon and white during the week was a practice hardball tilt held at Perris. The Palm Springs hardball schedule is a "free-lance" deal to gain experience for the resumption of baseball next year. Our boys lost to Perris, but put in a good fight all the way. The highlight of the game was a driving home run by Art Jurado, which cleared a distant row of trees. The final score gave Perris a 13-6 decision which isn't so bad considering our boys were playing without much practice under their belts.

This week we find our boys journeying to Beaumont Thursday for softball and taking to the home track Friday to try to beat down Coachella's fast squad. Come out and support the team at least once during the year.

May We Introduce . .

By JEANETTE OFSTHUN

This week we come to the Juniors. Ah yes, the mighty Juniors! Well, anyway, here are two fine examples of the Junior class. First, the boy—

This man really gets around! Here are a few places where he has lived: Sioux City, Iowa, originally; Hermosa Beach; Caspar, Wyoming; Beverly Hills; Anaheim; and last but not least, Palm Springs. His height of 5 ft. 9½ in. makes his 142 pounds just about right, especially for pole vaulting, and football too. Yes indeed, he was the fastest quarterback on the team.

His pet hate is having his picture taken. The only time he gets a good picture (says he) is when he is standing beside someone. Another peeve of his is people who squirt him with little glass tubes in Chemistry.

As for food, he'll take nice, juicy, rare steaks any old day. Maybe not with the blood oozing out, but rare. By now you must know who "he" is. No? All-right, one more hint. You will see him sometimes wearing a blue three year Anaheim letterman sweater, if it is not on his little woman. Which reminds me, let's get to his dream-girl.

Five feet two (and three-quarters), eyes of blue, long blonde hair, all neatly stacked into 109 lbs. That, my friends, is a description of our hero's girl-friend. Born on July 26, 1929, she is sweet (?) sixteen. Of all things, her ambition is to be an osteopath-physician.

When asked what kind of men she prefers, she says, "I like a man who is five feet nine and a half inches tall, weighs 142 lbs., has brown hair, and beautiful brown eyes, with long, curly lashes. He never wears levis and sport coats." Now who does that sound like? Hm-m-m could be!

People who are late for appointments really make her burn. Swimming, buying clothes of any kind, and dancing with Tommy (oh, oh, that slipped) are her favorite occupations.

Now you must know. Our mysterious Juniors are that inevitable couple, Tom Archer, and Barbara Croft. Tom and Bobbe to you.

Old-Timers Look Over Country They Fought Years Ago

Stage coach drivers who used to drive their four and six horse coaches across the desert before Palm Springs was even inhabited by white men, paid a visit to the Village Wednesday in one of those horseless wagons—a Pacific Greyhound bus.

Despite their age, each definitely showed the rugged type of individual it took to drive a four and six horse team, no doubt with "six-guns" strapped to their waists for any emergency that might have arisen.

The excursion to Palm Springs was under the auspices of the Pacific Greyhound Bus company and under the guidance of Commander A. W. Scott, conductor of the Mutual Radio network program, the "Romance of Highways."

Mayor Eugene E. Theriault greeted the group.

Kuk Joins Village Force This Week

Aaron Kuk, for four years with Douglas Aircraft company at El Segundo in charge of communications and prior to that sports announcer at KFBK, Sacramento, is the newest member of the local police force.

He replaced Vic Jansen, resigned to go into private employment.

Kuk, who is married, started his duties March 21.

Well Known Denver Family Back in Village

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Fish who have been winter residents in Palm Springs for a number of years are staying at the Mira Monte hotel this year. Mr. Fish is president of the Mid-West Steel and Iron Works company of Denver and Mrs. Fish is past president of Federation of Womens Club of Colorado and has always been active in clubs.

At present they are hosts to their three daughters, Mrs. Donald Bear and daughter Gretel of Santa Barbara; Mrs. B. W. Melcher and son Burton, Jr. of Denver, and Mrs. George Bradley of Seattle, Wash. The family will be together here until April 14 and then they will return to their respective homes.

All Bad Check Cases Settled

Chief of Police A. G. Kettmann reported yesterday that all of the bad check cases on police books, all had been cleaned up but $38 worth.

Arrested on bad check charges were John O'Neil, 31, Harriett Masters, 28, and Bill Cox, 23. The latter was arrested this week, a year and a month after he had allegedly passed $220 in worthless checks.

The chief also said that restitution had been made in other cases involving considerable funds.

BETROTHED—Miss Peggy Blatz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Valentin Blatz, well known winter residents, whose engagement to Lt. John W. McCoy of San Francisco was announced today. (Gayle's Studio).

Engagement of Peggy Blatz and Officer Revealed

Miss Peggy Blatz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Valentin Blatz of Milwaukee and Palm Springs, today at an open house at her parent's home, 511 Via Miralesti, announced her engagement to Lt. (jg) John W. McCoy, just returned from two and one half years in the South Pacific.

Miss Blatz, pretty Milwaukee girl, did her bit toward the war effort, by working at Torney General Hospital. She is a graduate of Mt. Mary college of Milwaukee. Lt. McCoy, the son of Mrs. R. W. McCoy of Minnesota, attended University of Minnesota.

Many guests from Wisconsin and Minnesota were present at today's announcement party.

Chief Stymied

Has To Call Nash To Let Him Out

Whenever the police get a call from a distracted Villager, pestered by bees, they call on Bill Nash of the telephone company.

For besides being an expert in telephone matters he's an expert on bees.

But this week the bees came right home to roost. They swarmed all over the front porch of Chief of Police A. G. Kettmann's house.

From a safe refuge inside, the chief sent a frantic S.O.S. to Bill Nash. Nash came down in a hurry, corralled all of the bees without a single casualty, and let the chief out of his house to his duties of keeping Palm Springs, safe, sane and sound.

Give to the Red Cross.

Doris Jean Neel Becomes Bride Of P. H. Weir

Doris Jean Neel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Neel, 603 East Ramon road, was married March 20 to Paul H. Weir, son of the Rev. and Mrs. R. Weir of La Grange, Georgia.

The new Mrs. Weir is a graduate of Palm Springs high, class of '41 and an accomplished musician.

The newlyweds spent their honeymoon at Lake Arrowhead and will visit with the bride's sister, Mrs. Marian Insole of San Fernando, Mrs. Marjorie Paul of Whittier and Mrs. Mildred Collings of Redondo Beach before leaving for their home in Georgia.

Mrs. Weir has lived in Palm Springs since she was two years of age. She has been with the Knobby Knit shop here for the past three years.

A surprise shower was given for the bride as a post-nuptial event Sunday evening by Norma Mabrey.

Great Throng at Luncheon Event Of Eastern Star

One of the most enjoyable social affairs of the season was held at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Murphy last Thursday. The occasion was the last of the series of eight bridge teas sponsored by the Eastern Star club of which Mrs. Murphy is president.

More than one hundred members and guests partook of the delicious turkey luncheon served at noon around the lovely pool. At 11 a.m. Mrs. Daisy Love, who has so efficiently instructed the class during the entire course, gave an hour lesson and examination. After the luncheon the entire afternoon was devoted to bridge, bingo and other games.

The very substantial sum derived from this series of eight bridge teas is to be used in furnishing the Order of Eastern Star chapter room here as soon as the Masonic Temple is built in this city.

While serving in the Navy, all business dictated to my account is credited to me.

Farewell Party Given Officers Leaving Village

A farewell dance was given for Major Donald C. MacFayden, Capt. Paul Bigrigg, Capt. Louis M. Tyler and Lt. Ashley T. Hawn at the Army air base here Saturday. All of the honored guests were on orders to proceed to Ft. MacArthur, San Pedro, for separation from the service.

Major MacFayden was well known in both military and social circles here in Palm Springs. He was one of the first officers to arrive at the Army air base during the early days of the war. Prior to his entry into the service, he taught flying at one of the many small fields that surround the city of Los Angeles. Lt. Ashley T. Hawn, a college professor from Eastern Tennessee, arrived here last summer and established something of a record in the number of soldier students he enrolled for correspondence courses in preparation for civilian life. Capt. Paul Bigrigg was an instructor at the flying school on the base, teaching pilots to fly the Air Transport Command way.

"Reality" will be the subject of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston. The Golden Text is from Philippians: "Whatever things are true, whatever things are honest, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report; if there be any praise, think on these things."

Matthew reports that "when Jesus was come into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother laid, and sick of a fever. And he touched her hand, and the fever left her; and she arose, and ministered unto them. When the even was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with devils; and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick."

Mary Baker Eddy says in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "Harmony in man is as real and immortal as in music." "When we learn in Science how to be perfect even as our Father in heaven is perfect, thought is turned into new and healthy channels—towards the contemplation of things immortal and away from materiality to the Principle of the universe, including harmonious man."

Laetare Sunday To Be Observed By Catholics

In the liturgy of the Catholic church, next Sunday, March 31, is known as "Laetare Sunday," which marks the middle of the Lenten season. Somewhat in contrast to the spirit of penance and mortification, there is a note of joy and gladness in the liturgical services of the day to denote in anticipation the overwhelming joy and peace of Easter morning.

The choir of Our Lady of Solitude church in Palm Springs will present a sacred concert in the church next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Mrs. August Kettmann will preside at the organ, and Mrs. William Rashall will direct the choral numbers of the inspiring program. During the evening, Monsignor Wekenman, the pastor, will give a brief appreciation of sacred music, which has been fostered and developed by the church through the centuries in every nation.

The public is cordially invited to attend the concert next Sunday evening. Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will be given at the end of the concert program.

Second Youth for Christ Rally Set For This Evening

The second of the great Youth for Christ Rallies will be held at Community church tonight at 7:30.

Two weeks ago a large audience from the village gathered to join in an evening of fun, centered around the theme "Youth for Christ." An even greater crowd is expected this week as the popularity of the meetings is growing.

A singleness of spirit led by one of the outstanding song leaders of the west coast, Bill Brown, will start the program. Bill Brown of Banning will bring a pianist who is the accompanist for the Banning youth rallies, a trumpet player and some added local talent.

Coming to the village to bring the message will be John Trontved of Los Angeles, who is dean of the Lutheran Bible Institute of that city. He is one of the outstanding youth speakers, making a speaking tour each year to the east for conferences and camps. He is a graduate of St. Olaf College, Northfield, Minn., and the Lutheran Theological Seminary of St. Paul, Minn.

Acting as master of ceremonies for the evening will be Bob Schmidt, recently discharged from the armed services.

In charge of arrangements for the rally is a committee of prominent local civic leaders, John Hormel, J. Marvin Ostrander, George and Marion Slayton, George Minor, Mr. and Mrs. William Veith, Bob Schmidt, Bob Eckert, Pat Fowler, Nancy Nye, Donella Knapp, Pauline Pinckney, and Bernice Schmidt, youth leader of the Community church.

Second in Series Of "Atoning Life" Sermons Scheduled

"Love Finds the Way" will be the sermon topic Sunday morning by the Rev. Robert M. Hogarth, rector of the Episcopal church of St. Paul's in the Desert. It is the second in a short series on the "Atoning Life."

"Most of us mistakenly think that we can make atonement for our sins, but without God we can do nothing. We do not atone but God does; we only make it possible by our sincere repentance," said Rev. Hogarth.

There are two Lenten week days this week as usual: Tuesday, 10:00 a.m., in the church, Holy Communion and sermon on another great thought of Jesus, "Narrow is the Way that Leadeth Unto Life." On Thursday, April 4, at 3:00 p.m. there will be a devotional service and address by the Rev. John Robertson Macartney, D.D., minister of the Palm Springs Community church, on "Steps Towards Organic Unity Between the Presbyterian and Episcopal Churches." The place of meeting will be the home of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Lapp, Rock Point. It will be followed by refreshments and social hour.

The Episcopal parish choir, Alexander Hammond, director, will sing the complete Cantata of the Crucifixion by Sir John Stainer, one week from this Sunday, on April 7, Passion Sunday, during the morning service hour at 11 o'clock. Through the means of this great music the choir will speak the only prayers. The Rev. J. H. Kemmis, M.A. of London, England, now on a lecture tour in this country, will preach.

"One Day" Service Planned by Griffith

"Piece of Land Means Peace of Mind" HIDDEN SPRINGS RANCH

at
THOUSAND PALMS

The Newest and Largest Residential Suburb in the Palm Springs District.

A strictly residential development of estates designed by the Doyles, originators and initial owners of the Smoke Tree Ranch, Palm Springs. The same careful choice of location and high standards of community planning prevails.

Hidden Springs Ranch affords an unusual assurance of permanence and security to gracious living. The responsibility of substantial land ownership is combined with the developer of proven record in projects of this character. Every project of Mr. Doyle's origin in the Palm Springs District is a going, successful institution; the purchasers and owners have profited in terms of desirable living atmosphere, or financial enhancement. This third and finest concept of desert living meets an over-due requirement for a distinctive residential district outside and adjacent to the growing city of Palm Springs. The history of all city growths is a migration, by the discriminating, from the congested areas to the spaciousness and exclusiveness of distinctive residence districts.

This property, of over 1200 continuous acres—the last large acreage in the upper Coachella Valley meeting the requirements of winter residence property—lies 12.2 miles from the Desert Inn, 7 miles from the City limits. It is within the Palm Springs High School District with eventual bus service.

The property is laid out in estates of 1, 2½, 5 and 10 acres. There are no "lots," motel or court sites, nor "business frontages." The essential requirements for shops and service will be met by ranch owned buildings, leased and controlled, eliminating spoilation of the desert atmosphere or residential values. The minimum parcel is 300 x 150, net, and slightly over one full acre.

Financial Stability

Pertinent to every buyer is the financial strength and permanence of any development wherein he plans to build. Every acre of this large property is fee owned and clear. The lands are owned by five owners, of whom the developer is one, bound contractually in a single development. There are no debts, none contemplated. The ranch is planned as a long term development in which the continuity of character and policy is relevant to values.

Restrictions

Architectural restrictions are limited to external design with requirement of approval, regardless of costs, by a joint architect's board of developer and owners. Owners may build a simple artistic cottage or have an elaborate desert estate. The dominant note is mixed-income groups without loss of homogeneity. Adequate character restrictions are maintained by methods similar to Emerald Bay, Laguna Beach.

Utilities

Electricity, roads and domestic water piped to every estate site in conformance with State and County requirements. Current water available for over 3000 persons. The property is served with Imperial Irrigation District power from the All-American Canal sources. Future electric rates, on completion of the canal project, insures continuing lower domestic rates.

Recreational Use and Productive Soil

While Hidden Springs Ranch is designed, primarily, as a restricted residential property of gentleman's estates, with emphasis on preservation of the desert and informal living, the potential of fertile soil combined with future abundant irrigation water lends, to portions of the lands, a unique intrinsic value. Future All-American cheap, well-pumped water, versus Colorado river water, at the same low rate, will enable economic plantings of exotic ornamental growths—dates, figs, and the many semi-tropical arboricultural products common to the Coachella Valley. This rare combination of secluded and restricted residential property with soil which enables economic plantings, has no counterpart in all the Palm Springs district; the lands in this limited area may well become priceless within the memory of living men.

Features

Wind protected by the Shadow Mountains—located on the slopes well above the dust belt in the valley—2 hours more sunshine and less rain than areas at the foot of the mountains—an 8-month season due to gentle breezes from San Geronimo Pass in early fall and late spring—a rider's paradise of unfenced virgin desert with rich hidden retreats and palmed oases—sense of spaciousness and privacy without excessive isolation—easy commuting distance to Palm Springs shops, theaters and social life—low tax areas for recreational properties—freedom from truck noise and urban tempo—"people make the place" and Doyle standards—all-paved road from Palm Springs to Highway 99 in August 1946—original owners with rights to recreational facilities and subsequent buyers approved by property owners insuring homogeneity—summer care-taker services, and elimination of responsibility for outlying property—thirty one substantial owners currently owning.

Swimming Pool and Club House

Without extravagant guarantees or elaborate promises, it is the intent of the developer to construct a swimming pool and adobe club house, in simple style, when materials are available and growth justifies. Initial owners will have access to these central facilities without any club liabilities, stock purchases or fetters to a free market for their recreational properties. Second, or subsequent, purchasers must be approved by the home owners to use such facilities as may be available. The device is simple, essential and effective. The plan of operation, based on previous performance, contemplates innumerable services of maids, meals, summer caretaking, care of plantings and the elimination of those objectionable features which often make possession of outlying properties a drudgery and excessive expense.

Costs

The property is outside the inflated areas. Whole acres of gorgeous recreational property with the features of productive soil at less than ordinary resort city lots. Estate sites from $1250 to $2000. Sites are sold for cash, on terms of 5 years with 5% interest on balances, or leased for 99 years with an option to buy throughout the entire 99 years, at $96.00 per year.

Never before in the history of this vanishing Palm Springs desert and a rapidly depreciating dollar has so much been offered for so little.

Directions and Information

Wildflowers In Profusion Near Village

Many kinds of desert wildflowers are now in full bloom up the local canyons. Many of them are not strictly desert species, having wandered down from the higher mountains, but are nevertheless of great interest to the desert hiker and rider. A list of some of the commoner flowers now to be seen follows, as reported by the Desert Museum:

Small-flowered Cudweed, Chuparosa, Desert Lavender, Virgin's Bower, Wishbone Bush, Creosote Bush, Desert Paintbrush, Felt-leaved Yerba Santa, Bush Penstemon, Encelia or Brittlebush, Desert Hyacinth, Dodder, Ephedra or Desert Tea, Pinebush, Campanulate Phacelia, Lemonade-berry, Goat-nut, Desert Apricot (in fruit), Deer-weed, Vigiera, Turbinella Oak, Wild Buckwheat, Bladder-pod, Deerhorn Cactus, Beavertail, Barrel Cactus, Sand Verbena, and the Mountain Lilac. The Joshua Trees continue to bloom along the road to Twenty-nine Palms.

The first person known to have sailed within the Antarctic circle, was Captain Cook, who reached the southernmost point reached by him on January 30, 1774.

Vision, Held for Years, Realized In City This Week

Marcella Ebbly, Smoke Tree ranch, was the first bed patient admitted early Monday morning when the Palm Springs Community Hospital opened its doors for business, according to A. F. Branton, manager. The nature of Miss Ebbly's illness was not disclosed, however it is reported that she is a teacher wintering at that ranch.

At the same time, Branton also announced that the hospital is prepared to render medical, surgical and obstetrical service. The 38-patient ward, leased to the Palm Springs Hospital association by the army opened with nine registered nurses and nine local doctors on its staff. In addition there are laboratory technicians and other attendants.

END LONG TRIPS

Good news for Palm Springs was the announcement by Branton that hereafter victims of accidents, requiring surgical attention, will no longer have to be driven fifty and sixty miles for emergency treatment when serious count in the saving of a life.

It was with a sigh of relief that William Alworth, city manager, greeted the announcement that at last Palm Springs was to have a hospital in operation.

NOW AT HOME

For many years people injured in automobile and other accidents were only given emergency attention in the offices of local doctors. Then the police would load the patients into a one-stretcher ambulance and drive hell-bent for election to Coachella, Indio or Riverside, while the victim's screams of pain mingled with that of the siren.

Eventually the word and prayer of those who knew the ambulance situation here was the fervent hope that they would not become involved in an accident while in Palm Springs. A climax to this situation was written three weeks ago, when an automobile overturned near the southern limits of the city. Three people were seriously injured, one with multiple fractures of the skull, another with a fracture of the pelvic bone, and still another with painful contusions and abrasions. The skull patient died. However, these three accident victims had to be crowded into the one-stretcher ambulance like sardines and driven approximately 30 miles to Coachella.

CITY THANKFUL

"At last this situation is over", declared William Alworth. "The hospital here definitely fills what up to now has been a terrible void."

Alworth was not pleased any more than Chief of Police August Kettman, whose department has been charged with picking up and delivering accident patients to distant hospitals.

"In addition to the saving of lives, where minutes mean the difference between living and dying for accident victims," said Chief Kettman, "the operation of the hospital here will be a time-saving load for the under-staffed police force". He pointed out that where it took three and sometimes four hours to deliver a patient to a hospital, depriving the department here of two and sometimes three members, it would not only take a half hour and not more than an hour in serious cases.

In 1638 the Swedes colonized that part of the United States now comprising the state of Delaware. This was their only attempt at colonization in the New World.

Practically all of the survivors of the once great tribe of Delaware Indians live in northeastern Oklahoma. They are citizens of the state.

Effective from Los Angeles Wednesday, March 20, tourist sleeping cars will be transferred from the Golden State Limited to the Californian over the Golden State Route to Chicago, it was announced here today by Dwayne H. Bardwell, Traveling Passenger Agent of the Southern Pacific Company.

Alaskans Trade
Snow and Cold
For Desert Sun

The rapidly increasing number of future desert dwellers has been augmented this week, according to Charles Doyle of the Hidden Springs Ranch, with the purchase of an acre homestead by a man from the farthest point north on the American continent.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Brown, former residents of Seattle who have been periodically wintering in Palm Springs hotels, decided they had found the end of the trail here on the desert.

More than 20 years ago Mr. Brown was one of the pioneers in the large scale salmon canning industry with plants located along the Alaskan coast from the Aleutians. After a number of years of active life in the far north he resided in Seattle, where his company's headquarters was located. Later, after retirement, the Browns came to California to enjoy the soft breezes of the Pacific at San Diego. Now they say they have approached the millennium with summer residence at the beach and winters on the warm desert at Palm Springs.

Mrs. Brown, remembering the bitter cold winds and rain of the Aleutians when she used to visit her husband during his active days, asserted that the only snow she had any desire to see was the snow capped San Jacinto thru the palms on the ranch of their future home.

The Brown purchase, Mr. Doyle reports, marks the thirty-first owner in the new 1200 acre residence district which he opened this winter at Thousand Palms.

Brownies Look in On Fire Station And Police Office

Sixteen Brownie Scouts of Troop IV met at the Girl Scout Little House on Tuesday afternoon. In accordance with this troop's current project, Study of Community Life, the troop was taken by their leader, Mrs. Harris Posey, assisted by Mrs. William Grenzow, to visit the Palm Springs Fire station and the city police department.

Fireman I. C. Ritter greeted the Brownies at the fire station and gave them instruction in fire prevention, how the scouts may aid in such work, and the general principles of the fire engine. Also, Mr. Ritter explained the city fire signals. Using a map of the city, he pointed out the various zones and signal codes for such. Following the lecture, the Troop witnessed a motion picture demonstrating the extinguishing of a fire by a model fire department.

Next, the Brownie troop paid a visit to the Palm Springs police department. Chief A. G. Kettman welcomed the girls, showing them the quarters and taking them into one of the cells. The police chief explained finger printing and as a demonstration took prints of the Brownies who were then allowed to examine their own prints under a microscope. The secretary demonstrated to the group how fingerprints were taken from articles to be used as exhibits in crime cases. A broken strong-box was used in the demonstration. Chief Kettman then explained how the Brownies could cooperate with the police department in aiding traffic safety and the simple rules of safety to follow. He also explained how the two-way police radio works.

At the close of the interesting afternoon the Brownies made plans for visits to the city library and the new radio station KCMJ in Palm Springs.

William Vajsabel First Winner of Alvah Hicks Award

Nellie N. Coffman School assembly last Friday was the scene of the first Alvah F. Hicks Honor Award ceremony when William Vajsabel, a student of the eighth grade, was presented a certificate accompanied by a check for $25. The latter amount represented the net income from a trust fund of one thousand dollars established by the late Alvah F. Hicks in his will.

The will stipulated that Harold J. Hicks "pay the net income each year to some boy of good moral character who is then in the eighth grade of the elementary schools of Palm Springs. . . . The boy shall be chosen by a committee consisting of the president of the board of trustees, or other body governing the elementary schools at Palm Springs, California, the superintendent of the elementary schools at Palm Springs, and my said trustee. . . . It has been my wish to give some small incentive or reward to a worthy boy in the lower grades, and I hope that this bequest on my part will accomplish such a purpose. . . . It is my idea that scholarship should not constitute the main qualification of the boy, but rather that they should select one of good character and good habits."

The faculty of the Nellie Coffman school nominated several boys of the eighth grade eligible for this award. From this list the judges made their selection.

The qualities of citizenship which finally gave the award to William Vajsabel were these: He makes good use of money earned doing odd jobs after school, paying for some of his own clothes and buying war bonds. He is well liked by his fellow pupils, running second in the election for student body president last month. He contributes service and time to school activities beyond regular class work as an active and faithful reporter for the school paper. He serves his community through the Boy Scout organization whose meetings he attends regularly. He attends his church regularly and assists in the services.

The Alvah F. Hicks Honor award was made by Harold J. Hicks.

DEPENDABILITY

Few other traits of character are as important in a man or a company as dependability. It is doubly important in a public transportation service.

Greyhound is fully alert to the fact that the communities of Southern California depend heavily on the continuous flow of modern, local Greyhound service. Keeping and improving this high standard of operation is Greyhound's number one job.

The priceless experience gained in bus pioneering and development has given Greyhound people the "know how". Their sound understanding of Southern California's transportation problems has enabled them to build, right from the start, an expanding, ever-better local service. Today or tomorrow, you can go where you want to, when you want to, by Greyhound. That's dependability.

GIs May Retain Previous Stripes On Re-Enlistment

Stripes in proportion to their previous training and experience in the Army now may be given former soldiers upon re-enlistment, even though they have been out more than 90 days, according to a new War Department directive. The order applies to men discharged since May 12, 1945 and will expire June 30.

More than 400 job titles are listed and graded according to length of time the soldier has previously served in that military specialty.

The Army urgently needs some men in these classifications, it was announced at recruiting headquarters, Room 216, P.O. Bldg., Riverside. In many specialties an ex-serviceman need have only six months previous experience in his classification to return as a corporal, or above, with higher grades for experience of 12, 18, 24, 30 or 36 months.

THE MOJAVE DESERT

Part Two

The drainage of most of the Mojave Desert is into the center of the huge basin, and except for the local areas near the Colorado River, none of the water falling into it reaches the sea. It merely collects in shallow ephemeral lakes and speedily evaporates, leaving saline playas to dot the desert floor.

Other sites of scenic interest on the Mojave are Pisgah and Amboy craters, small but beautifully formed volcanic cones. In other areas actual lava flows may be seen, huge masses of the "aa" type of molten rock. Then, northwest of Needles, there's famous Mitchell's Caverns, containing some little-known but very remarkable subterranean rooms and passageways. In the Devil's Playground area near Kelso are some of the most extensive and spectacular sand-dunes to be found anywhere, rivalling even those just west of Yuma. Two man-made lakes, Lake Havasu back of Parker Dam and Lake Mead back of Boulder Dam, are considered in the eastern edge of the Mojave, and these two places are fast becoming great recreational centers.

JOSHUA TREE TYPICAL

The most typical plant of the Mojave Desert is the Joshua Tree, which is really a member of the lily family and of the yucca tribe, not a cactus as most persons believe. Dr. Herbert L. Mason of the University of California's department of botany claims that so closely does the distribution of the Joshua coincide with the extent of the Mojave, that the Joshua should be considered THE plant indicator for that area. This merely means that wherever you find a tree yucca growing under natural conditions, you can be sure you are on the Mojave. Being a plant indicator does not imply that this bizarre desert tree forms a continuous forest over this huge area. Rather, it is scattered widely, mostly about the desert's edges, and grows in isolated dense stands. The best Joshua Tree forests are to be found in the Monument near Twentynine Palms, around Victorville and Hesperia, at Cima, and near Lancaster and Muroc. Oddly enough, the Joshua comes right to the very edge of the Colorado Desert at Yucca Valley, on the brink of the Morongo Valley, but does not spill over into this desert region. Altitude and the resultant cooler climate and more humid conditions that go with a higher elevation undoubtedly are deciding factors in this tree's unique distribution.

MOUNTAIN PASSES

The mountain passes leading to the south and west from the Mojave Desert are several in number. Morongo Pass, already referred to, extends into the Colorado Desert between the San Bernardino and the Little San Bernardino Mountains. One goes through this pass in travelling from Banning and the San Geronimo Pass to Twentynine Palms. Cajon Pass (pronounced Cah-hone) penetrates between the San Bernardino and the San Gabriel Mountains, along the famous San Andreas earthquake fault line, and one traverses it in going from San Bernardino to Victorville. Further west is Tehachapi Pass (pronounced Teh-hatch-a-pee) between the southern Sierra Nevada's and the Tehachapi Mountains, and is along the route between the city of Mojave and Bakersfield. Part of the Tejon Pass (pronounced Teh-hone) leads from Palmdale to San Fernando Valley.

To the north of Tehachapi Pass lies beautiful Walker Pass, the road from Freeman on the desert side to Bakersfield on the Pacific drainage. In this Pass, Joshua Trees spill over several miles to the western side. This unusual distribution has been explained by the late Dr. Joseph Grinnell, reknown UC ornithologist, as being due to a huge expanse of granite north of that side of Walker Pass. This granitic face reflects the hot sun into the little valley below and thus duplicates the typical hotter, drier climate found on the east side of the Pass. At any rate, whatever the reason, a little pocket of desert does persist there.

PALMS HERE, TOO

The Joshua Tree is only one of many interesting plants to be seen on the Mojave. Strangely, the characteristic tree of the Colorado Desert also occurs in a few limited spots on the Mojave: the Desert Palm or California Fan Palm. These can be found at Twentynine Palms and at Fortynine Palms. These localities are either the palm's northernmost penetration from the south or else the northern edge of a gradual withdrawal, perhaps indicating that at one remote time they may have occurred elsewhere on the Mojave in greater profusion, having since been wiped out there by climatic changes.

Many of the plants now growing over the Mojave Desert have invaded the region from the northeast, from an area called the Great Basin. In fact, about 94% of the Mojavean flora is identical with plants found in the Great Basin, indicating similar botanical histories. Of all the strictly California desert species of flowers now known to botanists, 35% of them are found only on the Mojave, 20% only on the Colorado Desert, and 45% are common to both, according to the noted botanist, Dr. Philip Munz.

The same may be said about the desert mammals. Some are restricted to either one desert or the other, some are found in both, and many range over even wider territories. Animals and birds, having the power of locomotion, are not nearly as apt to become distinct isolated species as are plants.

FOSSILS COMMON

Fossil remains of both plants and animals have been unearthed on the Mojave, proving that it is much older than the Colorado Desert, and was once much more humid than today, supporting a great grassland plant growth and populated by such grazing animals as the wild horse, camel, elephant, and deer, which were stalked by the ferocious sabre-toothed tiger, cave lion, and giant dire wolf. Pronghorn antelope were once common on the Mojave within historic times, giving such names as Antelope Valley, but they have been so decimated by uncontrolled hunting as to be almost extinct there now.

Next week we shall briefly consider the second of our two California deserts, the Colorado, which is perhaps of more interest to us here, since Palm Springs is located in its extreme northwestern corner.

OUT ROGERS' WAY

From San Francisco comes a clipping of Herb Caen's column, "It's News to Me," in the S.F. Chronicle. He captions the column, "The Desert Song," and sort of takes Palm Springs apart. I understand, however, that Mrs. G., who is writing Phat's column this week while he recuperates from his birthday, is raising Cain with Caen, so I'll lay off. Anyway, if you want to read what Caen said about us, just ask that god-looking Carol Jorgenson at the chamber of commerce. She has the clipping.

New Yorker, Pearson Mapes, head of Philco's Radio Hall of Fame, and visiting out Rogers way with Lucille Morrison is a nice guy but he is just a little confused about the peculiarities of the Westerns, especially in the eating department. Seems he has always eaten his eggs cooked.

JUST AS USUAL

The Van Heflins were out also, wish I could get the movie habit. I do enjoy Van Heflin's characterizations.

Friday came along this week in its customary place, immediately following Thursday, which is remembered mostly for the Barn Dance attended by some more than a few people. So Friday brought the second Smoke Tree-Deep Well party in the upstairs department. While watching said party from the side lines, I suddenly realized that Melba Bennett is just about the best Western dressed woman in town, or is my chin showing too much.

And the King came to town, or has some body else taken his place in the hearts of the Bobby-soxers? Anyhoo Van Johnson arrived this same Friday with Janice Cauthorne, Dora Morrison, and Jockey Sam Rennick.

OLD GANG BACK

More of the Old Gang of the "Good Ol' Days" have suddenly realized that the Old West still lives at Rogers Ranch and have been doing the thing quite a bit of late. Last week, Harold, who belongs to a unique American Legion Post, unique because they have no regular meeting place and the membership is limited to twenty-five members, had his comrades out for dinner and the dance. Every meeting night one of the members takes his turn in providing a meeting place and it was Harold's turn.

Doctor and Missus Doctor N. J. Redpath have returned to the big city, but not for long we hope.

NOT THE LONELIEST

At the head of the class in the Beautiful Blonde Department this week is the Charming Chick escorted by Dr. Bill Catherwood Saturday night, which is definitely not the loneliest night in the week. Didn't he say her name was Ann Hilton?

Sunday night I was sitting in my little office, the one located just in front of Claude's place of business, watching the people go by and noticed Frank Borsage and Norman Thieland going by.

And Monday our old friend and compatriot George "the Senator" Maypole returned with his wife, daughter and son-in-law. George has a very nice family.

Now comes the Plugging Things and Influencing Readers Department. This week let us plug, advertise and otherwise sell the Desert Circus which is strictly fun and will help build the Wars Memorial Building. So no matter what it is, buy it, and buy lots of it.

Dr. and Mrs. Harz Return to Village

Dr. and Mrs. George Harz of Chicago arrived this week and opened their home at 461 South Palm Canyon drive.

Dr. Harz is a well known Chicago veterinarian while Mrs. Harz is noted for founding the North Side Animal Shelter in that city.

Newlyweds Given Right Smart Howdy By Village Friends

Two outstanding events marked the activities of the Los Compadres last Sunday—one was when Wall Spalding roped his first calf at the B-Bar-N, and the cocktail and buffet lunch tendered Ted Reed and his new bride, the former Miss Claire Slade.

Wall Spalding, riding like the dare-devil (he isn't) was the only one of a group of riders to rope his calf during the contest. The calf was as equally surprised as the roper, according to a consensus of opinion among the spectators who watched the affair.

IT'S A SURPRISE

The party given for Mr. and Mrs. Ted Reed took place in their home at 591 Sunset drive, and was in the nature of a surprise.

It was originally intended to give the couple an old time charivari by making the bride walk down one side of Palm Canyon drive with the male members of the Los Compadres following in noisy wake and Ted Reed on the other side followed by the women members doing the same thing. Inclement weather, however, stopped this part of the show.

PALM SPRINGS, CALIF Friday, March 29, 1946

The Desert Sun—23

WALLS BULGING

The walls of the Reed home were bulging when all of the Los Compadres finally assembled there to do them honor. There were no top hats and evening gowns in evidence during the evening but the writer of this story can attest to the fact that both Mr. and Mrs. Reed were given one of the warmest receptions ever tendered a newly married couple in Palm Springs.

Sombreros were tossed into one corner of the living room and still in Western attire from the Gymkhana and with all that the wind and strenuous exercise can do to an appetite, the Los Compadres and other friends of the couple did "right smart well."

Moroccan women's lives are governed by rules: teeth to be brushed up and down and not cross-ways, the Devil's way; rouging includes the soles of the feet; never blow out a candle, never stroke any living thing.

Local Road District Gets $20,052 Gas Tax

County supervisors, after considerable discussion, last week agreed to divide excess gas tax funds among the five districts as follows: First district, Clarence A. Steves, Corona, $12,720. Second district, Ed S. Hill, Riverside, $3294. Third district, Walter V. Pittman, Riverside, $1668. Fourth district, Robert E. Dillon, Beaumont, $20,952. Fifth district, Floyd E. Gilmore, Hemet, $21,366.
